Moraga, WC School Trustees Veto Total Unification

Opposition to horizontal unification of all elementary and high schools in the Acalanes Union High School District has been decided upon by trustees of the Moraga and Walnut Creek School districts.

Moraga trustees would like to include Lafayette and Canyon in any organization plan affecting their area.

Walnut Creek trustees have toyed with the idea of including Lafayette in their reorganization plan, but decided to include Sun Valley only.

Trustees of the Lafayette School District are expected to vote Monday night on how to instruct their representative, who will attend the augmented County Committee for School District Organization meeting November 30.

A vote of all district representatives will be taken November 30, testing the reaction to the Odell report, which cost the county $9,000, and recommended horizontal unification of all districts with the high school district.

Trustees of the Orinda District will meet and instruct their delegate before the big meeting.

Canyon District trustees, who have shown no interest in any form of unification, will be represented.

The superintendents of the Lafayette and Moraga districts have expressed themselves in favor of horizontal unification.

The superintendents of the Walnut Creek and Orinda districts are opposed to horizontal unification, with the Orinda superintendent favoring "status quo" and the Walnut Creek superintendent favoring "vertical unification," including Sun Valley.

Both the Moraga and Walnut Creek trustee decisions opposing horizontal unification each were by split votes with one dissenter, but in each case the dissent did not favor horizontal unification.

The Moraga trustees voted 4-1 Wednesday night for an alternate plan unifying Lafayette, Canyon and Moraga, as described in the Odell report's "Plan D."

Superintendent William Knight had earlier recommended total or horizontal unification.

Robert Amber cast the "no" vote saying, "I do not think the Odell report is sound and I cannot vote for any alternative plan, therefore, I vote "No." Early in the evening Superintendent Knight, in defining his position for horizontal unification said "It is my feeling that a small district like Moraga stands a much better chance of presenting a well-rounded educational program by unifying with a larger district than by remaining small.

"Unification provides a continuous educational program from kindergarten through grade 12," he continued. "In a unified district, a larger number of teacher aids could be made available."

He cited science laboratories in the upper grades as an example.

Alfred Haskell, trustee, said "The distinct advantage of the small district is that the community has a definite rapport with the board. It is my personal opinion that we should develop the district on a community level."

"I think the Odell report is a bad report," trustee Rex Collings said, "it is not properly documented."

Agreeing with Haskell, he said "I believe that, the larger the district, the smaller the influence of the board. But if we must unify, I favor unifying with either Orinda or Lafayette."

Don Falconer, chairman, said "The only practical solution is to unify with Lafayette."

The Walnut Creek trustees, in a 3-1 vote, instructed their delegate, Alex Lindsay, to vote against the Odell report.

The motion was carried by Lindsay, Hugh Southworth and board chairman Irving Kraemer. Mrs. Phyllis Hartwig voted "no" on the basis that the board should make such a decision only when all members are present.

Trustee Dewitt Kreuger was absent.

Lindsay said that by his understanding, the November 30 voting will first pass on the Odell report.

The augmented committee's vote would be overruled by the regular 11-man County Committee for School District Reorganization, Lindsay said, unless some other positive plan is proposed.

Lindsay, with Kraemer's support, outlined a plan for unifying the elementary and high schools in the Walnut Creek and Sun Valley area, leaving out Lafayette area schools.

Las Lomas High and Del Valle High would be included.

Quietness Pays Off

People who join the Mt. Diablo Audubon Society often start out by wondering why grown people like to sneak around in open fields, making strange signals to one another, nervously clutching cameras, telescopes, binoculars and sack lunches.

They are first talked into going along on a field trip, like the one they plan to make to the Briones Park area this Sunday morning.

"At first it's like a game, seeing how many birds and animals you recognize. You sort of learn about the species as you go along," said Mrs. Beth Reynolds, local society president.

"BUT AFTER a while the excitement and the concentration of the others is contagious, and you are as surprised and happy as the rest of them when an unusual bird is encountered," she exclaimed.

"During our last field trip — we have about one each month — we saw about 50 species of birds, including a great blue heron and a green heron. This was near St. Mary's College," she said.

"Anyone is welcome to join us on our field trips," Mrs. Reynolds continued. "We start early in the morning and are finished around noontime. We don't walk fast, because we don't want to disturb the birds and we make careful statistical records of everything we see.

"You must learn the art of quietness on these trips. Sometimes all you can hear are the cameras clicking," she said.

AUDUBON Club members everywhere in the Bay Area are concerned about the disappearing bird sanctuaries, especially in the water areas, realizing that as the sanctuaries are reduced, so are the number of migrating birds which stop in this area.

"We are interested in the proposed bird sanctuary in Marin County, the proposed Point Reyes National Park, all parks, and conservation efforts," Mrs. Reynolds continued.

The variety of people who have joined the local group, she said, is shown by three foremost members, Harry Adamson, a Lafayette artist and bird sketcher; Lynn Farrar, a Lafayette civil engineer; and Bev Wilder, a maintenance engineer.

Mrs. Reynolds, a Walnut Creek resident, is assisted this year by Roy Goltfelty of Lafayette, vice-president; Mrs. Jane Nemetz of Walnut Creek, secretary; George Schad of Concord, treasurer; Mrs. Elizabeth O'Meara, immediate past president.

THE REGULARS include the chairman, Jack Reynolds, field trips; Miss Frances Blake, publicity; Ed Mize, editor of the magazine, "The Quail"; Ferd Ruth, conservation.

The Mt. Diablo club was organized in 1953, and has grown from about 20 to almost 90 members.

They meet each second Thursday of the month at 8 p.m. in the Diablo Valley College, Room 211.

They hear speakers like Duane Mattison, county park director. Mattison will guide them on their field trip Sunday.

THEIR TRIPS will take them to all sections of the county. Mt. Diablo is included twice a year. An overnight trip with the youngsters once a year takes them to places like Tomales Bay or Pt. Lobos.

When they return, they have reams of information on birds seen, all of which is related to other information collected in the past and also by other Audubon groups.

A picture of the county's popularity with migrating birds is formed. And there is the "Christmas count," where all Audubon groups cooperate in one great effort.

"You never know just what will turn up during these trips. We saw five varieties of sparrows, a black phoebe, several kinds of warblers and a kingfisher last time," enthused Mrs. Reynolds.

ORIOLES and the tanagers are a delight. The nest-robbing bluejays are frowned upon, of course.

Mt. Diablo members are also excited about the Audubon Junior Program, under which the local chapter furnishes two half-scholarships to the "Sugar Bowl," a nature study workshop near the Donner Summit.

The children are also benefiting from a class at San Miguel School, taught by Jane Nemetz, a professional dressmaker who attended Ferd Ruth's courses in nature study and conservation, and now herself an authority on the subject.

To: Richfield Oil Corporation
Public Relations Office
Att: Virgil McNab
417 Montgomery Street
San Francisco

We wish to protest the establishment of an expanded Richfield Service Station on Orinda Way, Orinda.

We understand that it is your intention to tear down the existing buildings in order to expand your station at Orinda Way and Camino Sobrante.

We wish to oppose this because Orinda has plenty of service station facilities at present, and does not need another expanded service station.

It does need, badly, the land and commercial buildings which would be removed through your contemplated expansion.

Orinda residents enjoy the Village shopping area and we wish to retain the natural beauty which we now enjoy.

County Control or Independence?

Orinda Doesn't Need This Move

An Editorial

Although Richfield Oil Company refuses to confirm or deny the story that it is planning to expand its station on Orinda Way, it has became a matter of serious concern to many Orindans.

It is believed that Richfield has purchased the property which now contains Orinda Village Hardware, The Pixie Shop, and the rest of the land on Orinda Way down to Camino Sobrante.

It is believed that Richfield intends to tear down the existing buildings and construct a newer, larger, more modern gas station.

IF ANYTHING, Orinda already has a surplus of gas stations. True, Richfield is there now, so it would not be actually adding another gas station, but it would be doing something else.

Commercial land is at a premium in Orinda and Orinda Village. There are many services which the people could use, but which are not available simply because there is a lack of proper buildings and space.

It would be acceptable if Richfield simply wanted to modernize the existing structure to bring it up to Orinda standards, but it is not acceptable to tear down commercial buildings to expand a gas station.

YOU WILL FIND, on this page, a coupon which you may fill out and mail directly to Richfield Oil Company if you feel strongly about what they are evidently contemplating.

Central Valley Bank Robbed by Armed Bandit

Armed robbery took place at Central Valley Bank shortly before 1 p.m. yesterday.

Described by observers as a slender, five foot, 11 inch Latin type male, weighing approximately 160 pounds, the robber entered the bank and approached the tellers windows with gun in hand.

"Make it snappy, B . . . ", he told one of the two girls behind the window. The girls, Marjorie Stack of Walnut Creek and Iona Burnside of Concord handed over currency in amounts undetermined at the time The Sun went to press.

STUFFING the bills in a five by 12 inch carton, the robber departed through the front door, went down the alley behind the Casa Orinda and disappeared, according to witnesses.

Sheriff's officers arrived on the scene three minutes after the robbery, according to the bank manager, with the F.B.I. arriving three minutes later.

The F.B.I. has impounded several bills the robber dropped in hopes of obtaining fingerprints.

Fire Commissioners Consider Autonomy

Breaking away from county control and establishing autonomous fire districts was discussed for more than an hour by the Contra Costa County Fire Commissioners Association, Monday night at the Casa Orinda.

Orinda Fire District representatives expressed special interest in the idea of the independent district, which would elect its own commissioners and set an independent budget.

But the entire group reviewed the provisions of the Fire District Act of 1961 (Assembly Bill 1355).

RESENTMENT stemmed from the fact commissioners were not consulted or informed before the board of supervisors' near-approval of a 10 per cent pay raise for all county fire district employees.

The law allows the commissioners of any district under county control to pass a motion calling for an election by the people, deciding if an autonomous district should be created, and which commissioner candidates should form a five-man board.

A majority vote would be sufficient to make the change.

The law not only allows the county districts to become autonomous; it also requires districts which are presently autonomous to hold elections within five years to remain autonomous, according to Zack Montgomery, association president.

IN THIS area, Lafayette and Danville districts are already autonomous, along with districts in Kensington and Rodeo.

The commissioners took no action in this respect.

The autonomous district also establishes its own working hours and salaries.

A resolution stating that the local districts are best able to determine employee wages was passed by the 36 commissioners and fire chiefs present.

PREPARED by Joe Longacre, an attorney and Orinda district commissioner, the resolution did not, however, oppose a wage increase for all fire district employees, whether it be five per cent or 10 per cent, two alternative suggestions.

Montgomery will attend the board of supervisors meeting Tuesday, when 10 per cent increase recommended by the County Civil Service Commis-

Young Orinda Boy Plays Football; Dies of Injuries

Tragedy has touched students at Inland Valley Intermediate School, who are stunned and saddened by the news of the death of their schoolmate, Michael Rogers, 12.

Michael was fatally injured in a freak accident while playing ball with his classmates Tuesday. During a lunch hour game of touch football, according to school officials, Michael leaped to get a pass at the same time as another player also jumped for the ball.

The two youngsters collided in mid-air and Michael fell to the ground injured. School officials called a nearby physician who attended the boy and ordered him taken to Providence Hospital, Oakland, where he died yesterday of a head injury.

District Superintendent Joseph Sheaff termed the accident "a terribly tragic thing to have happened." He said it was the first incident of its kind in the school district.

Michael leaves his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Rogers of 236 Ivy Drive; his brothers Gary and Stevie; his paternal grandmother, Mrs. Esther Rogers of Orinda and his maternal grandmother, Mrs. Ann O'Brien of Oakland.

Funeral services are pending at the Chapel of the Oaks, Oakland.

Major Food Stores Closed On Vet's Day

Veteran's Day, tomorrow, will find a number of major food stores in the area closed, and about half of the business and retail stores will also be closed.

The fact that Veteran's Day falls on a Saturday this year has prompted more stores than usual to stay open, since this is a busy time of the week.

Major food stores which will be closed include Lo-Ray, Sids, Lucky Store, Blacks Market, Safeway, Louis Stores, La-Fiesta and others.

Many other businesses, like banks and title companies, are normally closed on Saturdays every week.

Fire Commissioners Consider Autonomy

sion for the Central and Mountain View Districts will be considered.

MONTGOMERY said he will summarize the feelings of the commissioners, and will also discuss the need for fire trails in this county.

Fires such as that destroying hundreds of homes in Los Angeles County are possible in Contra Costa, he will tell them.

A study of the need for fire trails should be made by commissioners and chiefs, he will suggest.

Montgomery will refer to "Operation Tinderbox" which is a system where fire districts in the northern county, and including Orinda, will react cooperatively in the event of a large fire.

THE CIVIL Service Commission's 10 per cent pay increase proposal would find Central, Orinda, Eastern and San Pablo Districts unable to raise the money from their unappropriated reserves, although all districts could raise the cash for five per cent raises.

The commissioners examined an earlier letter from County Administrator J. P. McBrien stating that the money might be raised by eliminating other expenditures.

"This would be fatal as far as we are concerned," Montgomery told The Sun.

The commissioners generally feel that their program of installing fire hydrants and acquiring new equipment is "vital."

And, "It is unthinkable that money appropriated for fire protection purposes be diverted," Montgomery said.

Ten per cent increases would raise the district budgets from two to four per cent, although the period covered would be only six months, from January to June, he continued.

TYPICAL increases would be about three per cent for Central and Mt. Diablo, four per cent for Orinda.

Orinda Fire District is one of those which did not budget in anticipation of such a pay increase, said C. W. Langridge, president of the Orinda Fire Commission.

Langridge also recalled that Supervisor Mel Nielsen before submission of the 1961-62 budget promised that the county would hold the line, and his district acted upon this basis.

Manuel Mello, San Pablo chief, said he provided for salary increases in his budget, but added they were disallowed when the budget was submitted to the supervisors.

Don Chapman, president of the Federated Fire Fighters Association, attended the meeting, at the invitation of Montgomery.

AN INFECTIOUS Irish sense of humor permeates the Gerald Loughman household on Hacienda Circle where the transplanted Easterners, formerly of Marblehead, Massachusetts, have lived for the past seven years. Pat Loughman has penciled secretarial duties for both the Orinda Parents Club and the Santa Maria Women's Club, while "Bud," who is manager, S.F. district of Libbey-Owens Ford Glass, is a former president of the Orinda Estates Association. Daughter Rowie, 17, a freshman at College of Holy Names, counseled the past summer at a Kingston, Massachusetts, camp and sons Bill, 14, and Tim, 11, share an interest in whatever the season's sports, as does brother Gerry, not pictured, who is schooling in Denver, Colorado. Loughmans' family home in New Rochelle, the former George M. Cohan residence, was the inspiration for the famous song, "45 Minutes From Broadway."

Girl Scouts, Brownies Begin Busy New Year

Senior Girl Scout Troop 156 of Orinda held an election of officers at their first meeting for this school year. Barbara Bagley was elected president; Leslie Smith, vice-president; Dru Dunshee, treasurer; Jan Snow, secretary.

Activities planned for the year include helping needy children, mountain climbing and further planning of a trip to Mexico. It any high school girl is interested in joining this active troop, please call Barbara Bagley, DR 6-4385 or Leslie Smith, CL 4-8542.

A new Brownie troop has been formed in Orinda under the leadership of Madeline Bull, with Joan Pellissier acting as co-leader. Other helpers include Kay Dodge, Phyllis Simon, and Dorothy Stack.

New Brownies include Cindy Wilson, Debby Lohse, Andrea Gardner, Laura Battle, Melinda Pellissier, Michele Simon, Karen Holmgren, Martha Titmus, Jane Usinger, Terry Brooks, Kathleen Bromly, Caroline Desmond, Vicky Prager, Kimberlie Bull, Francie Stack, Dina Eldred, Ann Jensen, Christine Poggi Anne Dodge and Laura Williams.

When a Brownie troop flies up to Girl Scouts, there is an old tradition of turning over the Brownie flag to the Brownie troop following them. Orinda Girl Scout Troop 265 has just had this ceremony at the Orinda Community Church, at which time they presented their old Brownie flag to Troop 281, under the leadership of Mesdames Joe Pardini and Jack Saunders.

Mrs. Victor Smith is leader of Scout Troop 265, with the Mesdames William Mitchell and Blair Holland acting as co-leaders.

Record Is Set By Students At Miramonte

A record number of Miramonte High School students are eligible for membership in the California Scholarship Federation, according to school authorities.

Their spring semester grades enabled a total of 113 students to become eligible for membership in the federation. This is the largest number in the school's history.

C.S.F. membership is based on a point system, which grants three points for an "A" grade and one point for a "B" grade, with the exception of P.E. grades, which do not count in the tally. Also, a "B" grade in biology A or plane and solid geometry counts two points, since these are accelerated courses.

Church Women Plan Luncheon

The Women's Association of the Lafayette - Orinda Presbyterian Church will hold a luncheon meeting and program at noon Thursday at the church.

Mrs. Roy P. Thompson will report on her experiences at the United Presbyterian Women's first national meeting at Purdue University in June, and officers for 1962 will be elected.

The price of the luncheon is $1.00, which includes nursery care for pre-school children.

38 Boy Scouts Earn Awards

A Court of Honor was held October 19 in the Inland Valley School auditorium by Troop 245.

A total of 38 merit badges were presented. Ron Myers, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Myers of 654 Moraga Highway, was awarded the Life award. Star awards were presented to Bob Johnson and Bryan Lawver.

First class awards went to Jeff Gallagher, Larry Lawver, Tim Macdonald, Dave Tranberg and Jim Vicars. Second class awards went to Bob Ashworth, Stuart Campbell, Frank Gimbel, Pete McQuaid, Stuart Myers and Chuck Spinks.

Ronald Myers is scoutmaster and Rich Gallagher is junior assistant scoutmaster for Troop 245.

Moraga Will Vote On $350,000 Bond January 23

Moraga voters will be asked to approve a bonded indebtedness amounting to $350,000 for the Moraga School District January 23, according to a resolution passed by the school board, meeting Wednesday night in Camino Pablo School.

Rapid population growth and extensive building in the area were cited as reasons for asking the bond election. The $350,000 figure was arrived at by studying projected population estimates for the next five years, and projected assessed valuation of property.

An increase in enrollment from the present 479 to 600 in September is expected. This will make it necessary to construct one kindergarten room and four classrooms immediately.

Knight said that in order to meet state aid requirements it would be necessary to increase the present bonded indebtedness of the district to $187,000 now.

Explaining the new figure, Knight said, "We thought it better to ask for one bond election than to come back again and again for smaller amounts."

"I want to make it clear, however, that the money asked will not be used until it is needed. This is rather like a checking account that will be kept in reserve."

He cited the time lapse from the time a school is first planned and its completion as a reason needing a reserve. Sometimes, it was learned, the process takes from two years to 30 months.

Santa Maria Women Will Meet Tuesday

The regular monthly meeting of the Santa Maria Women's Club will be held Tuesday at 8 p.m. in the parish hall.

An explanation of the meaning, and also how to make the advent wreaths, will be given by member Tudy Little. Following business, there will be a beauty demonstration of Edith Rehnborg cosmetics.

New members are invited to call the hospitality chairman, Mrs. Roy Warren, 284-4254, or Mrs. George Courtney, CL 4-2087 for further information.

Mrs. Philip Reynolds at DR 6-4709 is now taking reservations for the holiday dinner dance planned for the evening of December 9 at Orinda Country Club.

Alcohol Conference

Mrs. Shirley Rogers, assistant in charge of the Alcoholic Information Center of the Contra Costa Council on Alcholism attend the three day Synposium on Alcohol and Civilization at the University of California School of Medicine, this weekend.

Pleasant Hill Is Contra Costa's Newest City

Pleasant Hill became Contra Costa County's 12th city Tuesday when voters backed incorporation by a 3-2 margin. Legally, the city will not be recognized for approximately 10 days.

The incorporation issue carried in 15 of the 16 precincts.

The final vote was 3173 to 2207 in favor of incorporation.

The total vote cast was 5450 with 70 persons not voting on the issue.

THE ELECTION attracted 60.2 per cent of the 8667 registered voters living within the proposed city boundaries to the polls.

Five city councilmen who will all serve four-year terms were also picked in the special election.

A total of 29 candidates were in the running for the city council posts.

Lenard Grote, a 40-year-old political science instructor at Diablo Valley College, topped all the candidates with 1941 votes.

Attorney Ben Hartinger and insurance salesman John Scaglione finished with 1711 and 1685 votes respectively.

Hartinger and Scaglione were the "founders" and leaders of the incorporation movement in Pleasant Hill that began last December.

THEIR group became known as the Home Rule Committee and included 18 of the 29 candidates.

Frank Salfingere, 69-year-old retired engineer and now a director of the Central Conta Costa Sanitary District, also won a seat on the initial city council by polling 1333 votes.

Frank Hanrahan, a director of the Contra Costa Water District, won the final spot with 13333 votes.

Gorte and Hanhahan ran as independents, opposing a Home Rule Committee pledge that calls for a city charter that guarantees the people of Pleasant Hill a "non-tax" city.

THE CHARTER envisioned by the Home Rule candidates would restrict the city council from levying a city property tax unless the voters agreed to it.

Independent candidates opposed this idea. They felt the city council should not have such a restriction.

Salfingere ran under the Home Rule banner, but at the last minute was part of a coalition with another Home Rule candidate, Hanrahan, and another independent candidate.

The estimated population of the new city is 25,000.

Pleasant Hill is the first addition to the county's roll of cities since January of 1948 when Brentwood voted for incorporation.

Troop 200 Helps Tidy Community

The boys of Orinda Troop 200, Boy Scouts of America, participated in a massive effort to tidy up their community.

Twenty-nine boys, armed with paint brushes and determination, descended on the Orinda Village and Crossroads. As the boys lost their fresh look and neat appearance, the redwood planter boxes lining the sidewalks assumed a bright, new finish.

Tree planting and care, pipelaying at the Sleepy Hollow School, get-out-the-vote participation are just a few of the community activities of Troop 200 in the past months. The boys of the troop continue to justify the pride of their community and their sponsoring organization, the Orinda Rotary Club.

Participating in applying the three and a half gallons of redwood stain were: Wayne Abbott, Mark Ammen, Bill Beckett, Jack and Roy Bowers, Steve Bowles, Mike Caudle, Ross Costa, Larry DeGrassi, Dave Denning, Bob Grigsby, Tom Halloran, Cris Hammond, Ron Ivy, Greg and Mark Kaesemeyer, Steve and Mark Knudsen, Paul and Stanley Majka, Tom and Tim Mueller, Rodney Price, Jeff Schwalm, Harry and Dwight Sigworth, Mike Smallwood, Jim Smith and Steve Spott.

Del Rey Slates Unification Talk

The Del Rey Parents Club will hold its first general meeting of the year Tuesday at 8 p.m. in the Del Rey School Library.

The topic of the program will be School Board Unification, with talks to be presented by Mrs. Duncan Knudsen, chairman of the Acalanes High School Board of Trustees and Philip Bush, representative from the Orinda Uunion School District Board to the County Augmented Committee on School District Reorganization.

THE TALKS will be followed by a discussion and question period. Coffee will be served at 7:30 p.m. preceding the meeting.

There is one copy of the report on unification made by the Stanford Research Group (Odell Report) available at the Del Rey office, for the use of parents who wish to study it. It may be signed out for overnight use.

Mrs. Chester O'Kowski, vice-president and program chairman of the Parents Club, urges all parents in the Del Rey area to come to this meeting and acquaint themselves with the facts concerned in this vital issue. This will be the only general meeting of the club to be held this semester.

THE ANNUAL drive for membership in the Parents Club has passed well beyond the 90 per cent mark, according to Mrs. Herbert Young, membership chairman. The first class to reach the 100 per cent was Mrs. O'Dea's sixth grade, followed by Miss Hendren's third grade and Mrs. Mullin's sixth grade.

The youngsters in these three classes were each awarded a medal ribbon, and to the other children in the school the Parents Club presented pencils engraved with the school's name at the conclusion of the successful membership drive.

Gil Construction Withdraws Bid

A special meeting of the Orinda Union School District was called last night for the purpose of authorizing Gil Construction to withdraw its bid for the construction of the El Rey multi-purpose room and the Inland Valley addition.

Trustees at a regular meeting Monday at Pine Grove School had accepted the low bid of $200,408 from Gil Construction, one of five firms which submitted bids at that time.

AFTER reviewing his figures, Gil discovered that transposition of figures on a subcontract for the classroom area at Inland Valley had caused an error of $10,000.

Tuesday he requested Superintendent Joseph A. Sheaff to ask the board to permit his withdrawal of the bid. After reviewing the papers, the board and Gil's attorney agreed the transposition had occurred and that Gil should be permitted to withdraw.

The other bidders Monday were Joseph Garavaglia, Pagni Construction Company, Vezey Construction and Fred C. Von Guenther. As The Sun went to press late yesterday, it was expected the board would authorize Gil's withdrawal and award the bid to Garavaglia who was the next lowest bidder Monday night.

IN OTHER action Monday the board agreed to contact the owner of a subdivision, Orinda North, that is being developed adjacent to the Orinda School to see if he would preserve all or a portion of a "nature study" area used by the school.

Civil defense procedures were discussed and the board set a policy of allowing students to stay at schools or go home without supervision during a "red" alert and assembling at predetermined locations at schools during a "yellow" alert and going home with supervision.

Downtown Christmas decorations will be in the Mexican manner on both the crossroads and village sides of Orinda this year, according to Mrs. Joseph Conley, chairman of arrangements, who recently held a planning session in her home on El Verrano Road.

Comprising representatives from the Orinda Art Center and three garden clubs, Orinda, Hilltop, and Orinda Valley, ladies who attended the meeting included Mesdames Charles Gibbs, Phil Champion, Edward Lester, William Wilkenson, Robert Davis, Richard Funk, Howard Bell, Ralph Hickcox, Fenn Wilson, Kenneth Renwick, James Anderson, Fran McBane and Paul Pollaczek.

Seventeen Girl Scout troops will make tin ornaments for the shrubs and trees. Giant pinatas will be suspended at two strategic locations, and strolling musicians will wander from store to store. The search for lodging by the Holy family will be reenacted in true Mexican tradition by children of the area, for the nine days preceding Christmas. Even Santa Claus will find himself garbed in serape and sombrero for the proper seasonal effect, according to Mrs. Conley.

Merchants and service clubs are being asked to cooperate in this south of the border Christmas fiesta, and Boy Scouts are expected to assist in construction work, according to Mrs. Conley.

Deputy at Work While Burglar Works on Home

Sheriff's deputies are still seeking the man who entered a Walnut Creek area home last week and attacked a housewife.

However, they are having a difficult time because the woman never saw her attacker. She was approached from behind and tied, deputies said.

The man entered the empty house through an unlocked door and awaited the return of the housewife.

Someone turned the tables on Deputy Sheriff John F. Teuscher last Saturday night.

While Teuscher was out doing his job of investigating burglaries last Saturday night, that someone was busy burglarizing Teuscher's home at 3262 La Canada, Lafayette.

When the deputy returned home after completing his 4 p.m. to midnight shift he found his home ransacked.

Taken in the burglary was a revolver, a rifle, a collection of valuable coins, a wrist watch and eight albums of long-play phonograph records.

THE BURGLAR apparently entered the house by breaking a rear bedroom window.

The sheriff's report stated that Teuscher had received four false reports about burglaries on his shift.

All four reports concerned burglaries in progress in the area furthest away from his house.

ANOTHER burglary, a grand theft and an armed robbery, were also reported in the past week to the sheriff's sub-station in Lafayette.

A Signal gas station at 298 Pleasant Hill reported that a canvas bag containing $56.75 in bills and change was taken Monday night.

A window was broken to gain entry to the gas station. The station manager reported that the bag was well hidden. He also said nothing else was touched.

The Stolte-Early Construction Company reported that two large heavy-duty electric motors were taken from a construction yard in Orinda.

The total value of the motors was estimated at almost $800.

PROJECT manager Carl Harris said a pickup truck or possibly a car would have been necessary to haul the motors away.

The theft took place Tuesday night.

James Corsault of Antioch reported to deputies that he was robbed of $25 by a man who confronted him with a pistol when he escorted a woman to her home on Overlook Drive, Walnut Creek.

Deputies said the suspect is the woman's estranged husband.

Corsault said the woman invited him in for a cup of coffee after he drove her home. When she unlocked the door, the man appeared in the doorway, forced him to hand over his wallet, then told him to leave.

IT WAS GREAT. says Pvt. David Francis, telling Master Sergeant William Kerr how U. S. Army basic training went at Fort Ord. Sgt. Kerr is the new Army "career counselor" for this area. Two new local stations have been established. The bus will be here next week. Sun photo by Bob Rush.

Army Moving In

The U. S. Army is establishing two "outposts" in this area, and Operation "Unlimited Opportunities" will begin next week in Walnut Creek, Lafayette, Orinda, Moraga, Danville and Alamo.

The outposts will be located at the Army Reserve Center, 1768 Locust Street, Walnut Creek, and in the Lafayette Sheriff's substation on Moraga Road.

The operation is under the command of Master Sergeant William Kerr, a 15-year veteran and former instructor at Fort Ord, near Monterey.

INITIAL task-force equipment will include a large bus, completely equipped for informing and counseling young men and their parents.

The bus will be located in this area next week from Tuesday to Saturday, 9 to 5, according to the following schedule:

Tuesday—in front of the Danville Fire House.

Wednesday, Thursday — Safeway Store parking lot, Lafayette.

FRIDAY, Saturday—in Broadway Shopping Center, next to the Anita Shop.

The bus will also be located in Concord for several days. The schedule has not been announced.

"Many fathers tell me they know all about the Army, because they remember their service in 1941," said Sgt. Kerr.

"But times have changed. The boys who pass the physical and the tests appropriate to the specialty which interests them are then given a written contract guaranteeing they will go into that field."

"THIS IS a far cry from the draft experience so many of the dads remember," Sgt. Kerr said.

The Walnut Creek facility will be manned by Sgt. Kerr on Tuesdays and Thursdays from 9 to 4.

He will be at the Lafayette facility on Mondays and Fridays, same hours.

At other times, he may be contacted at the U. S. Army Recruiting Station at 1838 Colfax, Concord. Master Sgt. Lawrence Scanlon is the career counselor there.

Sgt. Kerr served in the Pacific theater during World War II, assisted in troop training during the Korean War, was involved in Army engineer construction projects in France.

He was assigned to Ford Ord before accepting his present assignment.

Shelter Survey

The "National Fallout Shelter Survey and Marking Program" will be extended to Contra Costa and the eight other Bay Area counties, according to Congressman John Baldwin.

This program is "the first step by the Federal government to provide a network of public fallout shelters throughout the nation," said Baldwin.

Acceptable shelters in existing buildings will be located, recorded, evaluated and marked by the Twelfth Naval District's Public Works Department, he said.

The nature and cost of additional construction to improve the capacity or quality of potential shelters will also be included in the survey.

The nine Bay Area counties will be studied as a unit, said Baldwin.

Distribution of the population both at night and day will be taken into consideration, Baldwin said he has been told by Navy Captain Joseph White, Twelfth Naval District public works officer.

Property owners will be requested to permit temporary markings on their buildings where they are determined to be capable of providing protection now, Baldwin said.

Planning has begun, and the actual survey will begin when federal funds are made available.

Involved are the Office of Civilian Defense, Region 7; Department of Defense at Santa Rosa, the U. S. Army Corps of Engineers, Southern Pacific Division.

80 Youths Going to Long Beach

A county group of 80 young delegates, accompanied by 20 adult advisors, will leave for the Governor's State Youth Conference in Long Beach Sunday, according to Mrs. Antonio Silva of 2918 Esperanza Street, Concord, county chairman.

They will undergo an intensive period of basic training in leadership at Long Beach. They will be provided with a text book and other materials covering the nine areas of interest on the conference, an outgrowth of the President's White House conference of last year, is to open avenues to youth for participation in community affairs.

The delegates, nominated for the conference by youth groups in all parts of the country, include high school and college students and young employed persons. Each group of four will have one adult advisor.

According to Mrs. Silva, who is working with Mrs. Robert Adams of Lafayette, county-wide youth coordinating council will be formed after the conference and a followup meeting will be held February 10.

In the interim, a monthly news letter will be mailed to the participating delegates and their sponsors.

The delegates will be housed at the Lafayette Hotel in Long Beach and will fly home Tuesday. Organizations in the varous communities are contributing funds to defray costs of the delegation.

Fate of Development Association Discussed

By POLITICUS

The fate of the 25-year-old county development association will be discussed in future weeks by a special committee headed by Supervisor Tom Coll.

The members will consider the "type of organization which should have the job of developing information about and assisting industries and other large tax-paying agencies into the county," Coll said.

The committee met Monday at the Hall of Records, Martinez, and will meet there again November 20 at 8 p.m. The meeting is open to the public.

COLL AT the first meeting read a letter which he had written several months ago, proposing the creation of a new county industrial commission, and the allocation of county funds to its program.

The implication, not in the letter, was that the some $65,000 to $70,000 per year then going to the county development association, a quasi-official group, would cease.

The supervisors this year allocated only $44,000 to the association, a considerable reduction in funds.

Coll has made it clear that he believes some sort of change in the present system is needed, and he is looking for constructive suggestions from the committeemen.

THE DEVELOPMENT association's representative on the committee is Walter Jameson.

Others are Fred Sanders (Walnut Creek mayor), appointed by Coll; Wayne Bailey, named by Mel Nielsen; F. L. McIlhargey, named by Ed Linschied; Ray Reeves, named by James Kenney; and Roy McPhee, named by Joe Silva.

Sanders is a member of the development association, and has spoken strongly in its favor in the past.

Supervisor Kenney is a member, with Coll.

Gordon White represents the county taxpayers association.

SEVERAL county officials are also members.

The committee will discuss at length methods of attracting industry. This and the question of the best agency for achieving this will be tackled at the same time, said Coll.

There'll Be Some Changes Made

TEMPUS FIGITS . . . The old Moise Plan & the more recent Violich Plan will be dusted off for a display, we hope, at the Orinda Library, to show how time has passed us by, what changes time has wrought WITHOUT the plans & perhaps lift us out of a deadly lethargy about our fastly-developing community.

Eternal Vigilance is the price of a well-distinguished community & too long have too few had to carry the ball for the rest of us. Was it five, six, seven or ten years ago that we last talked of a Community Center? Where does time go? Where did the land disappear to? Will our community, because of lack of foresight & dilly-dallying, wind up like The Poor Little Rich Girl?

The Community Center property, owned by the Orinda Association, sits to the right as you round the road to Oakland. It is one of the last remaining lush green hilly hollows where the cows feel free to roam.

I'd hate to budge old Bossie, but I'm all for doing something, NOW & SOON, having a building we, as a community, can call our own. Something perhaps, with a touch of the old township, perhaps a Village Green, swings & seesaws for the kiddies, a natural garden w/park benches where Old & Young can meet . . . A CENTRAL point for a stretching community.

WE CAN'T ALL live in our own backyards forever.

PHAIR'S has the right idea . . . The only growing pains they've ever had are a few squeaky floorboards, a few splashes of paint, but it's always onward & upward for the Lord & Taylor of the canned-goods marts. As if the Wine Cellar & the delightful gift shop aren't enough, the latest addition was the Delicatessen & now we've the good news that a muchly-needed Village luncheon spot will make its debut shortly. Accdg. to Mgr. Don Bradley, a cozy mezzanine restaurant, to be open 11 a.m.-2 p.m., will grace the grocery store in the near future. How about calling it "The Bird Cage" after Mr. Phair's family pheasant? THINK what they could do w/the decor . . .

Gasoline Alley?

What we DON'T need is another Gas Station in the Village or in any part of Orinda proper. The property sold to Richfield so far doesn't include the Orinda Motors Garage in the package deal. However, it's obvious we wouldn't have TWO Richfield Stations now, is it, (Would they DARE?) so it's time to protest firmly.

A service station in Lafayette, despite loud protestations, didn't so much as oblige w/a landscape job. (To most Gas Companies, a landscape job means a potted plant in a redwood tub.) Unless you want to turn our town into a Gasoline Alley, please let Bruce Howard, Harry Fledderman, Dick Bartell, Jim Hupp, Murry McNeil, or your own association leader, know how you feel!

Come to think of it, the only place I run out of gas is 'way out Moraga . . . & it's a long walk back here—or to Rheem. We do need the garage, however.

THERE WAS SOME WIDE-EYED SURPRISE at last Monday's School Board meet when the prospect of two hundred new homes in the Altarinda area behind Orinda School (planned for development by Muth) brought the realization that we'd soon have to contend w/the inevitable addition of 200 plus children in the Orinda School district. . . .

TIME & TAXES will take care of the kiddies but a greater concern is being shown for the beautiful & unique Nature Area that exists in a canyon behind the school, abundant w/oak trees, birds, springs, native plants & animal life. Here is something that money can't buy & to reproduce it again, if it's ever lost in the bulldozers' jaws, will take a great deal of time (not in our lifetime) to restore.

I Think That I Shall Never See

AS someone mentioned years ago when the oaks were plowed under in Warford Mesa (now Orinda Park Manor). "It takes God many many years to create those, but only a few minutes for man to destroy the same. . . ." The oaks were referred to at that time, as "greasewood, mesquite & scrub oaks," but if you ever flew kites up that way you know as well as I do they were the real McCoy.

FOR THREE YEARS or more, we've looked at bare brown land next to the Mobil station in the village. . . . The timing for tearing down those many pine trees was perfect, just prior to the holidays, when to save cartage costs, the public was invited to take their pick of boughs for holiday decorations. Everyone naturally supposed a building would soon occupy that site, but still there is nothing . . . & the pine trees are lost forever.

I HOPE NEWCOMERS don't judge the old Pine Grove by its current ravaged look. . . . What was once a delightful miniature forest primeval of meadow flowers, tall healthy trees, now bears resemblance to a blighted battlefield, the pines having died when copper nails were deliberately driven into their hides for a quick demise.

Ladine Hudson, pres. of Friends of the Orinda Library, was a guest speaker at the State Libraries Convention at the Claremont recently. . . . Also on hand for the bookish doings were Margaret Anderson & Muriel Ray who listened to a lecture by writer Niven Busch.

"ANYTHING GOES," running the gamut from luncheon parties to bridge night for the neighbors, is the fund-raising party-theme for members of Orinda Woman's Club. Each member will turn over the monies raised to the group's own philanthropy project this year, the purchase of a new mechanical lift chair for the local Red Cross-sponsored Swimming for the Handicapped program.

Some of those finding this a better excuse than ever for a party are hostesses Phyllis Paltenghi, June Flagg, Colleen Myers, Jean Dalton & Noma Jamond. . . .

MORE CONTRIBUTING parties to this worthwhile project are Connie Doty, Fran Baumann, Jeanne Bottjer & Fran Wenrich.

THERE IS nothing like a Dane, especially two of them who have been married for 50 years, so in honor of her parents, the Morton Poulsens of Selma, California, Agnes & Del Kay are making plans for the golden wedding celebration to be held at the new Masonic Hall on Sunday, Nov. 26. . . . Naturally, there'll be Danish meat balls, delicate pastry & plenty of kaffee for the big Danish do . . . not to mention SKAL.

THE LARRY RAYMONDS are enjoying a Dutch treat in Holland, having taken up residence in a lovely home which they are furnishing w/antiques. . . .

Tsh . . . Tsh . . . Couldn't be anybody from our town the reason that the daisy-painted litter cans have dwindled down from twenty-two to only NINE!

MEMBERS of Santa Maria Women's Club will meet Tuesday night at 8 p.m. in the Parish Hall. . . . Tudy Little will explain Advent Wreaths & how to make them & there'll be a beauty demonstration of Edith Rehnborg cosmetics . . . . New members are especially welcome & for further club info can contact Hospitality Chrmn. Alice Warren, 284-4254 or Ardeen Courtney, CL. 4-2087. Reservation w/Kay Reynolds, DR. 6-4709 should be made now for the club's holiday dinner dance Dec. 9 at Orinda Country Club.

HOORAY! We just learned that the Orinda Motors Garage will remain until the lease expires some years hence. The property is in a trust for an out-of-county owner. Now is ANOTHER gas station REALLY necessary?

Beautification Slogan Is 'Beautify with Trees'

The Orinda Beautification Committee held its first meeting of the year November 2 at the Orinda School.

Mrs. Joseph F. Conley and Ewart J. Phair were introduced as the new chairman and co-chairman respectively, of the committee. Mrs. Conley suggested that the committee's slogan for this year be: "Unify and Beautify Orinda with Trees."

ROBERT BABCOCK showed the committee a map he had made of the Orinda business areas on both sides of the freeway. He will use this as a basis for a tree-planting plan which will be discussed early next year.

Robert M. Babcock is a landscape architect who lives in Orinda and whose belief in civic beautification has led to the landscaping of business areas in other parts of the country.

He has been giving of his time and professional knowledge for the past three years to the work of the committee because he feels that an attractive business communiy in Orinda will benefit all Orindans.

William Penn Mott is nationally famous for his beautification program in the City of Oakland, and is in demand by other cities in the country. He has also been a past president of the Park Superintendents of the United States.

MOTT SUGGESTED that trees be planted not in straight lines like telephone poles, but in informal groups. This type of street planting would be in keeping with the rustic, informal environment of Orinda. Mott also urged the committee to see the center-landscaping of Shattuck Avenue in Berkeley.

Repainting in soft colors of some of the buildings of this business section, and the toning down of signs, has also done a great deal to improve its appearance.

A report on the town's litter cans revealed that of 22 barrels set out on the streets last March only nine remain. Much time and effort on the part of the committee went into this project.

Mrs. Harold Nelson of Encinas de Moraga Improvement Association, asked the committee's help in landscaping the entrance to their area which intersects Camina Pablo and Moraga Highway.

THE FIRE Department has already burned off the weeds under the P.G.&E. tower, and ground covers, shrubs, fir bark, and perhaps some small trees were suggested by the committee to make this area bordering the business section attractive.

In preparation for Christmas, Mrs. Conley reported that Scout Troop 200, Harrison Sigworth, leader, would stain the redwood tubs of privet in the business sections Saturday as a civic project, and that Den 1 of Cub Scout Pack 32 would clean up the litter that has been thrown into the tubs.

MRS. CONLEY also stated that sub-committees have been set up to carry out the Christmas decoration plans for the community which were endorsed recently by the Chamber. In line with the early beginnings of the town, Orinda will have a Spanish Christmas this year.

Those attending the meeting included Mesdames Donald Pedersen, George Burtt, Philip Champion, Julius Rohwer, Robeson Smith, Basil Winslow, Frederick Rust, Paul Pollaczek, Joseph Conley and Messrs. Ewart J. Phair, Clarence Betz, Neill Porter, Robert Babcock, James Hupp, Richard Hale, Thomas Sibary and William Penn Mott.

William Mott Will Discuss Park Bonds

William Penn Mott, Jr., noted park landscape architect, will be the speaker at the next meeting of the Orinda Branch of the American Association of University Women.

The meeting will be held on Thursday at 8 p.m. in the multipurpose room of the Pine Grove School.

Mott will discuss the county bond issue dealing with the Contra Costa Park system, which will soon be placed before voters in the area.

As superintendent of parks, Oakland Park Department, since 1946, Mott will give background material on his subject. He has been both a president and a director of the American Institute of Park Executives, Inc.

He has served as a consultant to the United States Department, International Cooperative Administration of United States Operations to Costa Rica for the Institute of Interamerican Affairs.

Mott also has engaged in private practice as a landscape architect, specializing in park and recreation area master planning.

All local residents interested in the development of recreation areas and parks in Eastern Contra Costa County are cordially invited to attend this meeting.

Hilltop Club Plans Meeting

The Hilltop Garden Club of Orinda will meet Wednesday at 10 a.m. in the home of Mrs. A. P. Reck of 15 Los Dedos Road.

Mrs. Richard Roson will give a talk on "Sogetsu," modern Japanese flower arrangements. An informal luncheon will be served after the program with Mrs. Charles Ward assisting the hostess.

Three Complete Combat Training

Marine Privates Walter R. Altorfer, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. Altorfer of 42 Hillcrest Drive, and Robert G. Welch, son of George Welch of 188 Hall Drive are scheduled to complete four weeks' individual combat training today at the Second Infantry Training Regiment, Camp Pendleton.

Each leatherneck receives the training upon completion of recruit training to insure his proficiency at infantry tactics, scouting and patrolling, first aid, military explosives, defensive positions and crew-service weapons firing.

Hello Gourmets:

You've responded so well to the various French methods I've had here, that I think you'd like to try BEEF BOURGUIGNON. Here's how:

3 lbs. chuck or top round of beef, cut into 2 inch cubes, 1 small onion, sliced, 2 cups red wine, 1 small bay leaf, 4 sprigs parsley, pinch of thyme, 2 tbspns salad oil, ½ tspn salt, ¼ tspn pepper, 1 small carrot, sliced, 1 clove garlic, crushed, 3 tbspns butter, 1 tbspn flour, ½ cup consomme, ¼ lb. salt pork, diced, 24 small white onions, 1 cup fresh or canned mushrooms, sliced.

In deep bowl, combine meat, sliced onion, wine, bay leaf, parsley, thyme, oil, salt, pepper, carrot and garlic. Let stand for 4 hours, turning meat occasionally. Remove meat and pat dry with paper towels. Strain marinade and set aside for further use.

In Dutch oven or large, heavy saucepan, heat 2 tbspns butter. Add meat and cook until well browned on all sides. Add flour and cook for 3 minutes, stirring constantly. Stir in consomme and marinade, bring to boil. Cover and simmer for 2 hours. Meanwhile, in a small saucepan, heat remaining butter. Add salt pork and onions and cook over medium flame for 10 minutes, or until pork and onions are golden brown. Remove them to pan in which meat is cooking. Add mushrooms. Bring to boil. Cover and simmer for 45 minutes, or until meat is fork tender. Serve hot. Serves 6 to 8. Serve with boiled potatoes. Also good with all kinds of macaroni.

Wine: A red wine; Red Bordeaux, French red Burgundy; red Cotes du Rhine; domestic claret or Burgundy. NANCY

Miramonte Mirror

Senior Students Find Night Life Is 'Rough'!

By KITTY MIKA AND ANN LINCOLN

The ghosts and goblins were out on Halloween and so were plenty Miramonte teens. Just because Halloween fell in the middle of the week meant nothing to the gobs of teens who swarmed to Sleepy Hollow and joined in the typical Halloween activities—no names mentioned, of course.

After living it up that one night, though, seniors especially, devoted their nights to (serious?) studying. Physiology students were madly memorizing their bones—was it the fibula, the tibia, or maybe it was the radius or the . . . . So went Wednesday night.

Thursday night wasn't much of an improvement, with an American Problems test to study for. Yawns echoed in the halls on Friday morning, and some pretty dazed people walked out of 0-1.

EVERY ONE was pretty glad to see the weekend come! The Matador spirit was high on Friday night and the game was really a terrific one, Las Lomas beat Miramonte by one point, but the team really played a great game.

It seems last weekend was alumni weekend, and many of the alumni came to watch the Mats play. Some of those there were Sheri Croci and Andy DeGrassi, Bob Welch and Cinda Snell, Walt Altofer, Joan Hall, Randy Thaman, Dick Stark and John Rinne.

As usual, the St. Stephens dance after the game was jammed A few of the many teens dancing and talking were Barb Reynolds, Charlie Brock, Karen Nattress and Kit Kirsch, Nancy Bregar and Ron Jouthas, Sue Fernsten, Nancy Brailsford, Chris Combs and Bill Hallenger.

AFTER THE game, three couples went into San Francisco. It was Bob Pothier's birthday, and to celebrate Sharon Nielsen and Bob, Marge Hollidge and Jim Carter, and Bill Van Voorhis and his date walked all over Chinatown until their feet ached.

Saturday morning, bright and early, the SAT Tests started out at Diablo Valley. Quite a few extremely blurry-eyed senior girls dragged themselves out of bed for the occasion. Poor Jo-an Scholberg had to leave the house at 6:30 a.m. to pick up the car load of girls she was taking.

Saturday night was another late night for quite a few couples. The Sub Deb Ball, "Autumn Leaves," sponsored by Children's Hospital, was held in Oakland.

BEFORE the dance Brad Harlan had a dinner party for twelve senior couples. Brad did all the cooking himself, and they really ate in style, with oyster soup, filet mignon, plus salad and baked potatoes. All this plus atmosphere—candlelight, that is.

Betsy Blossom and Mike Smith, Linnet Trefts and Steve Miller, Mary Baker and Dwight Thompson, Sue Nattress and Paul McChesney, and Brad and Jo-an Scholberg were those who enjoyed Brad's tempting cooking.

Quite a few Miramonte couples were seen at the dance, and except for a few minor interruptions the evening was a big success. Some of the many there were Roxie Smith and Bob Williams, Kay Williams and Bob Young, Karen Voll and Ken White, Sue Hancock and Rich Adair, Sherry Odenthal and Brad Peter, Jackie Edenholm and Paul Scholberg, and Suzanne Portello and a boy from Stanford.

Speaking of Brad Peter, he got quite a kick out of imitating a boy from Oakland dancing, and almost started something—naturally Brad ducked out just in case.

Acalanes Accents -

Girls, Girls, Girls Are Headliners This Week!

By CAROL CURTISS

Acalanes Donnas have lately been walking their legs to the knee, wearing their fingers to the bone, and literally talking a blue streak. And all for what end, why for the Girls' League magazine sale, but natch!

You'd be absolutely a-mazed at the limitless (and I do mean limitless) number of magazines on sale today. Magazines for the bride-to-be, for the mother-to-be, for the busy housewife, for the beautiful ingenue; hot-rod magazines, hunting magazines, boating magazines, beauty magazines, business magazines.

You name it, we've got it, and by this time, chances are, you probably have it too.

NO, SERIOUSLY, the bi-annual magazine, thanks to a very generous community, was a smashing success with the total intake running more than $3,000. Girls you did a fabulous job, and if you should ever need a job, go talk to Mr. Fuller.

The three girls topping the sales campaign were Tina Linda who sold a whopping total of $103.44, Linda Westphal running an oh-so close second with $102.65, and Diane Burror with $93.90. Believe you me, that's an awful lot of magazines.

Those girls selling $30 or more are Laura deMeter, Margaret Hughes, Gretchen Jacobsen, Vicky Larsen, Nancy Lipner, Toni Navone, Carol Bates, Mary Campana, Barbara Flynn.

Wynn Ferth, Delphine Cannon, Frances Luthy, Kathy Maraglia, Jean McIntyre, Kathy O'Neil, Carolyn Shielder, Nancy Silla, Cindy Whitehorn, Gail Wilkinson, Bonner Blackwood, Diane Burror, Jean Crawford, Sue LaBare, Pat Hague, Alice and Barbara Nimmo, Gail Richard, Linda Bridges, Nancy Butler, Pam Hosford and Carol Paulson.

I would mention those who sold over $20 worth but if I did this column would be blocks long.

THE MONEY netted from the campaign will be used to finance all Girls' League activities for the next two years.

Just call this column "Girls, girls, girls—dateline Acalanes." A very hearty congratulations goes to Judy David who has been selected the winner of the D.A.R. award which is given annually to the most outstanding senior girl. (This is based on her entire four-year career at Acalanes.) But it was no walk-away, by any means as there was a four-way tie between Judy, Barbara Dietz, Linda Bridges and Tara Connor.

It's just a shame that there aren't four awards; all of them deserved it. I wouldn't have been a judge for anything—what a decision! Congratulations to four outstanding senior girls, your class is very, very proud of you!

FOUR OTHER girls taking top honors lately are, in their respective order, Sue Birch, Diane Smith, Marcia Jensen and Vicki Kelsey who placed in that order in the National Wool Growers Association district contest.

Sue is now attending the state contest being held in Santa Barbara. I know we all wish her the very best of luck.

Now I would like to congratulate four junior students who have been selected semi-finalists in the American Field Service exchange program. They are Nick Bollo, Cathy Brinkerhoff, Tom Cory and Molly Hunter.

Their names will now be sent to New York where they will undergo further screening and final palcement. Congratulations and best of luck.

P.S. JUST a little reminder—don't forget the junior prom which is coming up early in December. Social secretary, Molly Hunter, has announced the general chairmen so all you eager juniors hurry up and make your junior prom the very best yet.

Chairmen are: Decorations, Toni Eberle; publicity, Phil Grant; bids, Shari Chatenay; refreshments, Sally Henderson; and clean-up, Dave Perry. And as for the theme? It's still a secret.

Here's How Walnuts Are Grown and Harvested!

By ELEANORE McKOY

California leads the nation in acreage planted to walnuts—about 90 per cent of the walnuts grown commercially are grown in California.

Washington and Oregon contribute about eight to 10 per cent of the commercial walnut crop each year. Walnuts are grown in other states of the nation, too, but are of little commercial importance.

Naturally then Californians, most especially those of us living in Contra Costa County, are cognizant of the importance of our walnut industry. But do we know where walnuts begin—how large the trees grow—how long before they produce and when and how they are harvested?

ALTHOUGH walnuts are no longer considered a seasonal item with Thanksgiving and Christmas not far away, it seems like a good time to find out a little about these nuts that are so much a part of our holiday living.

William Barnes, general manager of the Moraga Ranch has been in the walnut indstry for over 36 years. He has a vast knowledge of and a tremendous interest in the business and was kind enough to grant an interview.

Approximately 900 acres of walnuts are planted on Moraga Ranch — inter-cropped with pear trees.

This year, Barnes stated, has been a disappointing one for the industry.

TALKING with Barnes in his small office it was hard to imagine even walnut trees daring not to meet his expectations!

He is a large man with a large voice. A most definite personality, expecting and accepting nothing but the best from his employees.

However since many of his workers have been with him for a good many years, one suspects that under the gruffness lies "a heart of an oak (pardon, walnut tree)."

Thirty-five years ago when Barnes first conceived the idea of growing walnuts on the Moraga Ranch, Northern California black walnut stock was planted. About three years later these trees were budded with Concord and English walnut stock.

INCIDENTALLY, blimey, English is a misnomer! The persians used walnuts as an item of commerce and they were carried by English ships all over the world, thus the mistaken belief that they were English walnuts.

The trees did well and within five or six years were bearing fruit. Walnut trees have been known to live for more than 200 years and with proper care they can produce almost indefinitely!

This should be kept in mind if waiting five or six years for a tree to bear seems long. Proper care of the trees includes pruning, dusting and spraying.

Water, too, is most important. Not too much and not too little—many a homeowner has been disappointed when his ornamental walnut tree died. This was probably due to over watering as home grown walnut trees are most generally planted surrounded by flowers and shrubs and watered as frequently, thus causing "root rot."

WALNUT harvesting in California begins in mid-September and continues into mid-November.

On Moraga Ranch between 35 and 40 men are hired—men from all over the country, men who follow the crops. In addition to the men who work in the orchards there are many other employees on the ranch.

There is a large kitchen (immaculate) where the food is prepared for the men who live on the ranch—married men live elsewhere, some in company-owned homes.

There is a room where the meat is made ready to be cooked (it looks exactly like a butcher shop, which I suppose it is). The meat slaughtered is grown right on the ranch. Manuel and his friendly (or hungry horse, he tried to eat my camera) ride the range watching over the cattle, checking the fences etc.

MANUEL is much a part of Moraga Ranch, having worked there for many years. A friendly man with immense charm he would delight any little boy aspiring to become a cowboy! Cowboy hat, slow gait, slow but endearing smile. A sort of Spanish Gary Cooper!

Any housewife would be envious of the tremendous canning room. Stored there are jar upon jar of fruit and vegetables. The dining room is immediately adjacent to the kitchen. Just prior to lunch or dinner time the long picnic-like tables are set up and arranged with as much attractiveness and neatness as any home could offer.

IT WOULD be hard not to be impressed by the extreme cleanliness of the whole operation—also with the friendliness of everyone connected with the ranch.

As soon as the nuts can be hulled, harvesting is begun. Shaking the nuts from the trees comes first. That is of course, getting the nuts from the trees to the ground.

Either cable or boom type shaker requires skilled operators to prevent injury of the tree limbs. (Hand shaking is seldom used).

Now that the nuts are on the ground the men with their buckets, bags or what have you, begin gathering them. Pick-up trucks bring the men into the orchards where they are directed by a supervisor and an assistant supervisor.

It is indeed a picturesque sight, the beautiful trees having done their part, stand a little disdainfully while man now does his part.

THE WEATHER at this time of year is usually beautiful and it is lovely in the orchards. The men talk and joke among themselves but they work efficiently and fast. They must — time is all important. When the nuts are brought in from the groves they must be hulled and washed.

Thirty-five years ago when walnut growing was begun on the Moraga Ranch the nuts were dried on trays in the sun. Things have changed. Now in order to take proper care of the walnut industry, expensive equipment has been installed including an elevator, huller, washer and dehydrator.

There is also a conveyor. One man feeds the nuts to the conveyor, other men are stationed beside the conveyor, they hand pick and separate the culls, blowers and other inferior nuts.

FROM THERE the nuts go to the washer, then to the dryer, then are sacked according to quality and delivered to the Walnut Creek Growers Association in Walnut Creek. From there they are sent to a large cooperative plant to be distributed to all parts of the country.

As Barnes stated, the year 1961 has been a disappointing one for the industry. In the latter part of April a heavy frost killed and destroyed about 10 per cent of the walnut acreage, then in June a heat wave never before experienced in Contra Costa County, destroyed another 40 per cent.

According to reports given to Barnes, approximately 100 acres of walnut crops in Contra Costa County will not be harvested this year!

There is of course more to the walnut industry then written here — that however is another story.

Perhaps next time you shop for walnuts in your favorite store, you will look with just a little more respect at the small package of nuts . . . you may remember how long it takes a tree to bear walnuts . . . perhaps you will think of the men, hands stained the color of iodine, who carefully gather and process the nuts so that only the best are ultimately placed on your grocer's shelves.

Engineers OK Revised Transit

BARTD Directors Are Expected to Agree

Approval of a new transit route running on the north side of the Mt. Diablo Freeway, bypassing Lafayette and Sun Valley, eliminating the old Olympic Boulevard route and entering Walnut Creek just north of the three-level interchange was expected of the Bay Area Rapid Transit District directors late yesterday.

The modifications of the original controversial routings have been determined to be "feasible from an engineering standpoint and also within the total estimated cost," according to Jack Gould, BARTD assistant chief engineer.

The transit directors' approval was expected to be relayed to the Contra Costa Board of Supervisors, which has scheduled a public hearing on rapid transit for November 30 at 10 a.m. in the Hall of Records, Martinez.

The route is now described as running east along the north side of the freeway, bypassing Lafayette, into a station and parking lot area on the northeast side of the junction of the freeway and Pleasant Hill Road, where a new interchange for the Shepherd Canyon Freeway will be built.

The parking lot in this area will hold 2000 cars.

The route then continues eastward along the north side of the freeway entering the Springbrook area and turning north in the vicinity of the existing three-level interchange in Walnut Creek.

Two earlier plans which have been rejected would either have taken the tracks south through Sun Valley, entering Walnut Creek in the vicinity of the Flagg property where a station would be built, or have run through the hills northwest of Walnut Creek, bypassing the downtown area.

Walnut Creek councilmen objected to the south-of-freeway route, with elevated tracks for one mile over the downtown area, and also objected to bypassing Walnut Creek, with a station too far north.

The routing in Walnut Creek from the interchange area would run north, crossing the freeway near Oakvale Road and running into a station and parking lot area bounded by the freeway, Ygnacio Valley Road, North California and Pringle Avenue.

This station would have a 1650-car parking lot.

Under the new plans, there will be elevated tracks at crossings, but considerably less than under the earlier plans, said Gould.

The routing from there to the north would follow original plans for using the old Sacramento Northern route, with another station located in the Walden area, near Geary Road.

Other stations in the vicinity will be located at the Orinda Crossroads and in Concord at Clayton Road and the Sacramento Northern tracks.

The Contra Costa supervisors will consider local transit plans and the entire system November 30, and during any subsequent hearings scheduled.

Financing of the $939,000,000 project will also be discussed.

Approval by supervisors of Contra Costa, Alameda, San Francisco and San Mateo counties is necessary before the proposed bond issue can be submitted to the voters, tentatively on June 5, 1962.

The present plan includes trackage in four counties, but not Marin County, where studies will determine whether the Golden Gate Bridge can be used to carry rapid transit trains. If it can, Marin County will be added to the plan.

The public hearing in Contra Costa County may be the first of several such sessions. The supervisors' "deadline" for recording an "initial" vote is January 10.

The transit lines were extended to Richmond and Concord after district officials were told those populous areas might not support the plan at the polls without the incentive of receiving service.

The project will take more than eight years for completion, and more than 100 miles of tracks will be constructed, along with stations.

Demos Set Record in Fund Drive

The 1961 Dollars for Democrats drive in Orinda has passed the $600 mark with about two-thirds of the precincts reporting, according to chairman Sid Davidson, of 8 Westover Court.

The figure is the highest amount ever collected in Orinda in a non-election year.

Davidson expressed his thanks to all the Orinda Democrats who contributed to the drive and praised the precinct workers for their diligence.

"The fact that our total is made up so largely of one- dollar contributions is particularly gratifying," said Davidson, "for it indicates the very broad base of Democratic support in the Orinda community."

The fund-raising drive is now being concluded, and workers are completing the precinct canvass. Democrats who have not been contacted and who wish to join the 1961 drive are asked to call Davidson at CL 4-2000 or Richard Bartle, president of the Orinda-Moraga Democratic Club at CL 4-4133.

Workers who have completed precinct coverage include: Marian Harris, Florence Weber, Barbara Reid, Marcia Ryan, Barbara Ferkiss, Richard Heggie, Irma Ahola, Dale Hill, Jack Hubner, Charlene Decker, Alice Link, Sam DiPrima, and Mrs. A. G. Polgar.

Church Library To Display Yule Gift Books

A display of books suitable for Christmas gifts will be shown at the Orinda Community Church Library November 16, 17 and 18 and from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. and after both services Sunday.

Mrs. Benjamin Mills who heads the volunteers who staff the library, invites the public to come, have coffee in the library, and browse through the books at their leisure.

There is a large selection for adults and children of all ages. Mrs. Mills described the selection as being the kind one would find appropriate in a church library.

Young Delegates Will Leave for Conference

Local community leaders and selected young people will leave by plane Sunday for Long Beach to attend the Governor's State Youth Conference.

Spartans Beat Pine Grove, 26-6

On October 20 at Stanley School, the 8th Grade Stanley Spartans marched triumphantly off the field after slaying the Pinegrove Panthers 29-6. After the first four downs, the Panthers punted and the Spartans' Dave Shank ran the ball all the way back for the first touchdown. Ken Kaplan ran the conversion.

Again, after downs, the Panthers had to punt, and again Shank ran a touchdown, this time on a second down. Shank passed to Rich Garcia for the conversion.

IN THE SECOND quarter, lack of yards again forced the Panthers to punt. This time Kaplan returned the ball 50 yards for a touchdown, giving the Spartans a 21-0 lead. After a scoreless third period, they traded touchdowns in the final quarter.

First came Shank's pass to Evan Jaqua for a touchdown, followed by another pass to Jaqua for the conversion. Then, after being held scoreless all through the first three quarters, the Panthers scored on a pass from Peters to Armstrong.

However, the Panthers missed the conversion and the score stayed 29-6. Stanley had won her fourth consecutive game of the season.

THE SEVENTH grade A's did just as well. The Spartans trampled the Seventh Grade Panthers 14-0. Gregg Bentley scored the first touchdown on a reverse and John Pike the second, with a run up the middle followed by a pass to Jeff Borowiak for the conversion.

All the 7th and 8th Grade B and C games were won by Stanley, who completely crushed the Panthers. The 8th B score was 31-0 and the 8th C 20-12, while the 7th B score was 12-0 and the 7th C was 54.0.

'Busy Martyr' Now in Rehearsal; Opens Nov. 24

By LES RUF

The Dramateurs will open the fall season with George Hitchcock's Busy Martyr. This prize winning play was unanimously chosen by the playreading committee. Opening night will be November 24 at 8 p.m. in the Town Hall, Lafayette for four weekend runs on Friday and Saturday evenings.

Director Carl Rasmussen has cast five married couples in varying roles of this unusual comedy. Old friends of the Dramateurs will recognize Mr. and Mrs. John Phillips, Mr. and Mrs. Gary Lawrence, Mr. and Mrs. Gary Elder, Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Winkworth and Mr. and Mrs. Paul Pollaczek.

These duos are but a sample of the many husband and wife teams who find pleasure in the innumerable technical, creative and administrative tasks that are so esesntial to little theater productions.

STAN STILLSON efforts in set construction, his wife Doris' apt handling of ticket sales; Clarence Betz's backbone duties as business manager and his wife Norma's contributions as house manager, are but scant sampling of back-stage marital works in the Dramateurs behalf.

The action of the play involves the townspeople of a mythical hamlet in France, in a span of time dating from 1890 to the present. One intense young man is accused of repeated crimes against the town's folk . . . especially the women.

The punishment quickly meted out by the populace in reaction to the varied crimes of Jean-Bapiste Hippolyte Marie-Henri-Muscari, the hero as played by Gary Elder, becomes a warmly droll comment on the human scene. To say more is to reveal the delights of this very unusual and slightly off-beat play.

The playwright, George Hitchcock, maintains close contact with the production, who, along with living in the bay area, has visited the rehearsal at the Town Hall in Lafayette, viewed and discussed the play with the technical crew, director and cast.

The author is a widely published short story writer and poet. With his wife, he is director of the Opera Workshop at the San Francisco Conservatory of Music.

HE IS also one of the editors of the San Francisco Review, a leading West Coast literary quarterly. He has for many years been active as actor and director in San Francisco theater, having played a wide variety of roles. The play has been produced by three other groups in its short history, notably the Actors Workshop and has received the Stanley Award in Playwriting from the New York City Writers' Conference in 1960.

Tickets for the production may be reserved by phoning CL 4-5241 from 9 a.m. to 6 p.m. daily and AT 4-9965 evenings.

Civic groups and social clubs wishing to sponsor ticket blocks for their own benefits at a reduced rate, are invited to call Mrs. Bert Miller at LA 4-0596.

Ken White Attends Conference in L.A.

Hats Off To Bill Knapke

William F. Knapke of Orinda is a firm believer in the adage "you're never too old to learn." An ordinary statement—except that Knapke at the age of 91 is proving that age is no barrier to knowledge.

Every Tuesday evening during the night school term he drives to Acalanes High School to attend Mrs. Juanita Germaine's adult education class in creative writing. (He has driven that car over 135,000 miles in the last seven years).

Should you visit classroom 106, on a Tuesday night, you would take immediate note of a neat genial-looking elderly gentleman, whom you might take to be in his seventies, sitting alert and attentive. But this is not his first term.

Bill, as he is affectionally known to his friends, has been a member of Mrs. Germaine's night class since its inception in 1954. His attendance record is a record in itself — he has never missed a semester!

BUT THIS remarkable man is no dullard. He is not like the dunce who could never get past the fourth grade. Knapke had "graduated" long before he ever attended the how-to-write class. He was already a successful author, having produced and sold nearly 200 articles and stories.

Then why, you may ask, go to a writing instruction class? When Knapke was asked this very question, he answered with a personable smile that it was because he liked the people he met there; he found the class interesting and stimulating and he learned something new each time. In turn, he felt he might be of some help to beginners.

Bill Knapke is an ex-railroadman with 50 years of service on 32 different railroads. He was born in East St. Louis, Illinois, on July 17, 1870. A third generation railroader, he started railroading at the age of 16 as a brakeman.

From then until his retirement irn 1936 he worked in many capicities on rails covering 13 states and Mexico. During the Spanish American War he saw army service in the Phillipines — as a railroadman!

Knapke began his writing career as a young man of 63. The first story was accepted and he has been so busy since, pounding out words that he has had no need for a rocking chair.

SELF EDUCATED, he has always been an avid reader—often reading a book a day. He does not depend alone on his amazing photographic memory of his experiences for his articles, many hours of study and research go into his writing.

Railroad Magazine for October carried a cover-featured story "Work Trains" and the December issue will come out with another article, "A Meet on the Desert." His "iron horse" yarns have also appeared in Rails, Steel, Bluebook, Wheels and Argosy.

Lafayette became his home when he moved from Bellflower in 1954,having lost his wife the year before after 53 years of marriage. Later he moved to his present address on 9A North Lane in Orinda.

The Story of Bill Knapke has been written up in both local and national publications. In fact, librarians of the Orinda branch of the Contra Costa County Library have started a file on their noteworthy neighbor.

BILL HAS an active sense of humor. Should you ask our nonagenarian the usual question "What is your recipe for longevity?", he'll probably answer with a twinkle, "Just keep breathing!"

Writing students may come and go in Mrs. Germaine's night class, but Bill Knapke stands out as her "prize pupil." And any of his classmates would offer a challenge to any other adult education class — any other night school, for that matter, to produce a student anywhere near his age — even one with his attendance record.

Fire Pay Increase Is Not In Order Now

The Contra Costa County Board of Supervisors, last year, said there would be no mid-year salary increase for county employees.

Now, after the budget has been set and the tax bills are out, the county turns around and grants sheriff's deputies a five per cent increase.

Furthermore, next Tuesday they are going to consider a 10 per cent increase for the firemen.

Frankly, the commissioners of the local fire departments are pretty upset about the whole matter, and justifiably so.

EXCEPTIONS ARE Lafayette and Danville, which are autonomous fire districts and are not governed by the Board of Supervisors. All other fire districts are.

One of the problems immediately becomes obvious. If, after the supervisors have said there would be no mid-year pay increases, they go ahead with this plan, then aren't they opening the door for everyone?

We would certainly oppose the move as being bad business practice, if for no other reason. And don't be fooled, the sheriff's office and the fire departments affected, to say nothing of the county, are big business.

The fire districts have already set their budgets for the year, and the tax rate has been set, and suddenly the county board of supervisors, without sitting down with the trustees, comes along and says they will grant a pay increase.

Where is the money going to come from? It hasn't been budgeted by any of the fire districts.

COUNTY ADMINISTRATOR J. P. McBrien says that the county can issue warrants on the county general fund, and that the individual fire districts can budget the money next year, through taxes, naturally, to pay the county back.

This sounds extremely foolish, if not downright unfair to the public.

Remember, all these districts held special budget meetings, to which the public was invited. At none of the meetings were pay raises this year considered.

Now, the people find out that they are going to be paying for a salary increase without even having a chance to talk about it to their local fire commissioners.

BUT THE LOCAL fire commissioners cannot be blamed for this one. They didn't have anything to say about it either.

One fire commissioner noted that if the proposed pay increase is granted, our area will be adopting a pay scale that is very close to that of the metropolitan areas, while the duties are much less onerous or dangerous.

But the basic point is that the supervisors said there would be no mid-year pay increases.

And this certainly isn't the first of the year.

How Much Recognition Is To Much in This Case

We noticed an interesting item coming from the Mt. Diablo Unified School District—or more properly—from the students at Mt. Diablo High School recently.

The youngsters out there are considering giving block letters for academic excellence, just as they are now given for sports.

This is not a new idea, and has been used before in various parts of the country. But as far as we know, it is new to this area. None of the schools in the Acalanes Union High School district follow this practice, nor do any of the other high schools in the Mt. Diablo district.

LOCAL EDUCATORS have kicked the idea around they admit, and they have come to the conclusion that this is something that should come from the kids, if they want it.

The youngsters administer the athletic block letter system in the various schools.

It would be rather interesting, we think, to see a block A, or block DV, or M, or LL, with a slide rule superimposed, say, or a test tube.

Possibly there is some question that this would be worthwhile, because excellent students are always going to be excellent students, and a borderline case might not be given enough incentive to do such superlative work that he could earn an academic letter.

EDUCATORS HAVE also said that they feel that possibly those students who do outstanding academic work already receive sufficient recognition through the California Scholarship Federation, which issues pins, and so forth.

These same educators have, however, agreed on one point in kicking the subject around. If such a system is organized, the standards would be such that any student achieving them would rate a letter. They would not recommend the system used in some schools whereby one letter each is given to the top boy and girl in each subject. Their feeling is that if you get straight "A's" you should get a letter, and this is sound.

We wonder if there is such a thing as top academic students getting "enough" recognition, and that this system, if adopted, would not just add a little bit more where it can do some good.

CERTAINLY IT would cost very little, and there doesn't seem to be any harm. At any rate, it would be an individual school matter.

But think of the ultimate possibility for status.

The young man with a block sweater on, with two letters . . . one in football, the other in math.

Wouldn't that be something?

Rally Round the Flag!

By HELEN SCHARMER

Why don't we teach patriotism in the schools.

This question was asked a local school principal last week at a PTA meeting.

He said to us, "Aside from the salute to the flag, we don't teach patriotism in our schools. Besides, how does one teach an idea to little children?"

"We don't teach patriotism, or ideas to any extent," said another teacher, "because we are afraid."

"MOST OF THE social studies have been watered down to please everyone until the only meaningful symbol of this country's beginnings is the flag."

Several years ago when we were going to school, we had a teacher of history in high school. Although we were in the Deep South, she made no bones about the reasons behind the Civil War.

We were taught the history of the reconstruction period with clarity and insight.

The only reason she wasn't fired was because she came from an old and distinguished Southern family and must have been well past 70 years of age.

Later we learned more from a superintendent of schools who was also a Rhodes scholar and a Ph.D. from Oxford University. He openly expressed his belief in the freedom of the individual and equality of education for all. This was in Tuscaloosa, Alabama in 1942.

He had the respect of all who knew him.

MOST OF OUR teachers do not have years and tradition to protect them. Many do not have the educational background of the Southern superintendent.

But the mass of educators today come to the children better equipped to do a good job than they would have been a generation ago.

Why can't they be allowed the luxury of the few mistakes, necessary if they are to progress in the teaching of ideas.

Our children have been taught about Indians for hours in their social studies. How many of them know the real truth behind some of our early conquests? How many of them know where the American Indian is today or what his status is?

PERHAPS IF THE children knew about our mistakes in this and other areas, they would be better able to cope with problems in the future.

The teacher of today who dares to point out that the people of many countries live and have lived in collective groups for years, and that they appear to be happy in this situation, might well be criticized for teaching Communist doctrine.

Yet if the children knew this was true and that our fierce individualism may not be necessary to some societies, nor even desirable, they might be well on the way towards understanding the differences between peoples.

Certainly understanding, of itself, can bring about a new relationship.

It is only when we are willing to understand the problems of our neighbor that we can begin to live with him.

Hats off to the veterans

A Few Edicts, If I Were Queen, I Mean!

By MARIE MONAHAN

IF I WERE QUEEN . . . I'd banish from the roadsides all the blatant blazing billboards . . . Start a strict control over flamboyant signs & marquees, especially those of the Las Vegas variety . . . Decree a punishment of policing the highway for guilty litterbugs, complete with spear stick & burlap bag in hand.

I'd Wave My Wand . . . To create, NOW, while the few spots remain, a park & recreation area in every suburban area . . . Design a park strictly for the tots, limited to lilliputs, with roll & tumble lawns, long-licking lollipops & flowing fountains of free-running lemonade.

IF I WERE ROYALTY, I'd revive sidewalks, with hopscotch games permanently cemented in each block & rollerskates & jumpropes for everyone . . . I'd give every boy a dog & every girl a horse.

If I wore a crown, I'd order for the flag, the loyalty it deserves . . . That every merchant flew one from his store front & every taxpayer from his home front . . . The the pledge of allegiance be recited each morning by every school girl & boy & the school band whip up spirit with a Souza March or the Star Spangled Banner to start the day.

IF I WERE QUEENIE, I would have . . . Fresh flowers in every room, fresh linen every day, a room-size aviary where birds could come & go at will, a church bell chiming at sunrise & a carillon call at the close of the day.

If I were Her Royal Highness, I'd reserve . . . The rurals hills for the cows, not the realtors . . . The natural nature areas for school & town parks, not the builders & subdividers . . . & chastise any child who shot birds by deafening his ears to a birdsong forever.

IF I WERE QUEEN, I'd roll out the red carpet, all wool & 15′ wide, for the shopping center developer who thought more of aesthetic sense than the $$$$$ cents & deplored the standard style of sterile neon-nodding stores.

I'd be quick to behead (Off With Their Heads!) . . . Any contractor who built a new house & put in the electric switch plates helter-skelter at odd angles as if he put them in, on his way out, in a hurry . . . Anyone who didn't exercise his right to vote & missed doing so twice in succession . . . Any hostess who made you wait till TEN for dinner . . . Gas Stations who wedged their way in where they weren't wanted —or needed!

IF I WERE REGAL, I'd make it illegal . . . For children to go to school without breakfast, or sweaters . . . or without their homework done!

IF I WERE QUEEN . . . I'd abolish blue jeans, period . . . Nail polish & lipstick on little girls . . . Fifth & Sixth grade pom-pon girls . . . Stretch pants on stout ladies & Jamaicas on jaunty paunchy gents.

If I were Her Masjesty, I'd think it a travesty . . . Not to let the high-schoolers have after-game dances AT SCHOOL as often as they liked, like when you & I were young, Meggie . . . I'd initiate a special program to pay particular attention to the kids who are NOT going to college & see that they found their forte & their future in industrial arts, etc. lest we lose them along the way.

If I were Her Highness . . . I'd give the school kids a pat on the head when they deserved it & a dunce-cap in the corner when they didn't . . . I'd forget the Race For Space for awhile & let the status symbols go, in favor of filling their young hearts with the exciting & eloquent story that is America's so they'd know first WHAT they are rather than what they SHOULD be!

ALL THIS, OF COURSE, if I were Queen, I mean!

TRICK OR TREAT
Dear Editor:

As a subscriber to The Sun I am writing to ask you whether or not you think an editorial would do any good about this subject of Trick or Treat.

Howe owners hesitate to go away from their homes on that night, fearful of what damage might be done.

Prior to leaving my home, I placed a TV tray on my front porch—this was filled with apples and candies.

On coming home, there was one apple left, but in spite of the treats, I had also been tricked!

WORDS WERE painted in red paint on the stucco walls of the porch, candle drippings on the stucco, my screen covered with a white substance, paint on the wood trim of my door gouged out with a knife and on the window several four-letter words.

Are these little vandals and smutty-minded children our privileged Orindans?

How does it happen that they do not know the meaning of fair play?

How does it happen that they have so little rsepect for the property of others?

It is the over-all situation which concerns me. What kind of future citizens are these children going to be, if there is no knowledge of fair play and respect of others' property?

Frankly, I don't like the picture too well.

MARGARET WINTERS.

BAD TASTE
Dear Editor:

It is very seldom that I find the editorial policy of The Sun in bad taste—but that is about the only way I can describe your front page open-letter to Mayor Houlihan (November 3).

I read the reports of the comments of Mayor Houlihan —and he spoke only about the problems of Oakland (which are fairly typical of central core cities in this day of suburbanization). The same pattern is true, to a greater or lesser degree, in New York, San Francisco, Sacramento or almost any other central city.

You seem to deny that people here are "wealthy." Of course, wealth, in many usages, is relative. If the people around you don't have more money than you do—then you may not consider them wealthy. Perhaps to re-acquaint yourself with the problems of Oakland you might drive through West Oakland and note the illegally divided homes—or look at the hotels on lower Broadway and Washington Street that have not been padlocked.

EVEN if we accept "wealth" as a relative term, any objective analysis (including the census) will show a considerably higher average per-capita income or family income or household income (take your choice) for communities like Lafayette and Orinda than for the City of Oakland.

Fundamentally your letter was as uncharitable as one could possibly write.

Let me partially answer it in a manner that I think Mayor Houlihan would like to answer —but probably will not.

He would ask, for example, what have you done with all the people who are on this side of the tunnel. I don't see them doing anything outstanding for Lafayette. For example, they evidently don't want to govern themselves — which, at least, Oakland is doing. They seem perfectly happy to pay a $10 tax rate for which they get practically no urban services whereas those in Oakland pay $9 and get such advantages as a local police department, better street repair and maintenance, a park and recreation department, a public library system (without having to form a special district to build the building), traffic lights at major intersections, a planning commission, and many other facilities.

I also think that Mayor Houlihan would comment that many of the local Lafayette residents would be actively sought by him, since they do have great ability, to assist in building a better Oakland — whereas you, Mr. Editor, appear happy to let them use Lafayette as a bedroom community.

Unfortunately, the split between bedroom and workroom community that exists in this area today means that many of the most capable citizens contribute nothing to either.

Is this a situation about which you wish to brag?

Finally, your statement to Mayor Houlihan ". . . even if you are not quite first-class," is downright insulting. I find the comment more appropriate for the gutter than for the front page of The Sun.

ROBERT KAHN

DIRTY BOOKS
Dear Editor:

I read in the November 3 issue of The Sun—"Hats off to Contra Costa library for placing 'Tropic of Cancer' on the shelves." In other words, anything can be written, published, and placed for reading no matter how filthy.

Why not say — "hats off to the man who places an unlabeled bottle of poison on his medicine shelf" or, "hats off to the man who loves snakes and lets a rattler loose in his home."

Why is it intelligent to care for our children's physical health by preventive measures but when it comes to mental, moral, or religious issues it is thought extremely intellectual to adopt an "accept everything" attitude?

This is not "free speech" or "free press." It is a lack of intestinal fortitude to stand for something important. Why is it so hard to face the fact that there are a lot of contagiously sick minds in the world just as there are sick bodies? And just because a sick mind gets his thoughts published does not mean we should expose our most priceless possessions to its disease.

KENNETH J. MEENACH.

(Ed. Note: Our libraries have the book on "reserve" shelves—not available to anyone perusing the open shelves.)

Under The Sun

You Are Invited! Come Along Wednesday Night

By HERMAN SILVERMAN

What are you doing next Wednesday evening?

We hope you'll join us for a fast-moving Night of Fun—"The Sun Evening of Travel." Acalanes High School Cafeteria, 8 p.m., and finished by 9:30. No charge, of course.

I think you'll enjoy it even if you're not interested in travel.

I know you'll enjoy it if you are an "Armchair Traveler."

I'm positive you'll enjoy it if you're interested in "The Sun's Jubilee Holiday to Europe."

Interest in travel

Incidentally, we are amazed at how many of you readers are interested in foreign countries and travel, and in The Sun Holiday. We were glad when 100 per cent of the comments were in favor of the deluxe motor coach travel as the best way to see the country. And everyone seemed amazed that The Sun was able to offer a 28-day all-inclusive tour for only $1098. Apparently, they had been checking the folders, too.

Eleanor and I promise you a snappy program of entertainment of fun. We're looking forward to a very talented couple, Jo and Art Breyfogle, who will sing and dance their way around Europe. The Breyfogles were formerly in musical comedy, and have appeared before many civic groups and clubs.

Next, will be some superb, color movies of Rome.

And then, for the heck of it, there'll be a drawing, for some interesting prizes from Holland.

Sun Holiday plans

Next will be a brief discussion of The Sun's 25th Anniversary Event—the Jubilee Holiday to Europe. If you're not interested, you can plan to leave during this period. But certainly you're invited to stay, if you wish, even though you have no thoughts about a jaunt to Europe.

I don't even think this need be mentioned but I will; obviously, there is no obligation involved. It will be an interesting, educational evening.

We hope to see you next Wednesday.

BOMB SHELTERS
Dear Editor:

I read Paula Ayers' thoughtful and sincere letter on the subject of bomb shelters (The Sun, October 13) with a great deal of interest, and it has motivated me to contribute my thoughts on civil defense. I would appreciate your publishing them.

Apparently many people believe, or want to believe, that bomb shelters are one answer to nuclear war. However, even if one accepts the premise that bomb shelters will save lives, doesn't this lead to the question, save them for what?

It seems to me that bomb shelters are only a temporary treatment for the disease of war which mankind has yet to conquer. Perhaps they will ease the pain of a first nuclear attack, but will they be perpetually effective against further bombings, chemical and biological warfare, and other more terrifying war machinery yet to be devised?

SURELY IF WE fail in our efforts to eliminate the possibility of war, the consequences can only be the constant reinforcing of shelters in an attempt to protect ourselves from the increasingly horrendous weapons that are sure to follow.

Human beings, for better or worse, have the ability to accept and adjust emotionally to changes in their environment. For example, over the centuries people have accepted such things as the Spanish Inquisition, Hitler's atrocities against the Jews, and the bombing of Hiroshima and Nagasaki. Now many are able to accept internecine nuclear war which, shelters or not, will annihilate millions.

That parents should want to protect their children from atomic attack is certainly understandable and praiseworthy. However, one must ask if they have fully considered the prospect of the charred remains of our society that they and their children will face if and when they come out of their shelters. Only then should they begin construction. Certainly building a shelter appears to be the easy way out of the situation — Americans are accustomed to writing checks to make their lives more secure —but it is well past the point where the signing of a shelter agreement will make this a safer world.

I WISH I could offer a panacea for our world crisis. Instead I can only ask thar parents turn inward and with their conscience as their only witness answer the following questions: Do they believe that building a shelter is the best they can do for their family? Have they thought of an alternative to wars and shelters and hydrogen bombs? Have they looked into what those who do believe there is an alternative are doing? If so, have they listened to these people with an open mind?

Have they written to their elected representatives and editors of publications expressing their aversion to war and their desire for peaceful solutions to world problems?

IF CHURCH members, have discussed with their minister or rabbi their moral obligations as Christians or Jews not to pray, but to work for peace, one of the precepts of nearly all faiths? Have they made any attempt to look into the activities of recognized peace organizations such as the American Friends Service Committee?

I do not pretend that these actions will bring peace tomorrow or the next day, but I hope they will persuade Miss Ayers and others like her that the situation is not so hopeless that we have no other alternative except to bury our heads in the sand. I hope they will demonstrate that there is a positive road to peace.

MRS. RONALD BURNETT.

ANONYMOUS MAIL
Dear Editor:

I was wondering if it would interest you to know that as an individual citizen I am proud to be an American. I am not by habit a letter writer but feel unusually disposed to write a protest of what is happening in our purportedly educated community and in other if not so well educated communities.

There is talk of a new anonymous letter with an anonymous post office box in Lafayette by a dissident element of our society who apparently find nothing of value in our culture or its leaders.

While they do not identify themselves, the tone of what they say and the methods employed are the same as those used by the current self-appointed protectors of democracy. It is quite apparent that they are for no other viewpoint than their own. They seem to be neither Republican nor Democrat inasmuch as all recent American leaders have been little short of traitorous.

We may not always agree with the courses of action taken by our government, but we are obliged to give them our trust. Ours is the responsibility of placing men in such a high position to so act, and it is the tendency on the part of the average American to look down on the politician as one motivated by egomania, greed or the like rather than as citizens with a sense of duty.

Confidence in our representatives is essential at all times, let alone the present trying conditions. The only valid protectors of democracy are the people who by discrimination in the exercise of their right to vote place in office men who will best represent their interests.

Where is the note of protest to those who would usurp these rights? Where are the sharp rebuttals of damning by inference? Does the average Orindan fail to recognize bigotry when he sees it? Are his diplomas merely rolled some cardboard tube lying at the bottom of an unforgotten trunk? Who is going to speak out in defense of our way of life, our institution and our leadership?

Ruth Meyer Is Bride

Radiantly lovely in a floor length gown of white silk organza with short train, Corlyn Ruth Meyer became the bride of Albert Lee Mierzwik on September 9 at Hillcrest Congregational Church.

Given in marriage by her father, Walter S. Meyer, the bride carried a bouquet of white baby roses, carnations and lilies of the valley in an old fashioned bouquet. Her veil was of shoulder length.

Reverend Eugene Sill officiated at the ceremony in the church which was decorated with bouquets of chrysanthemums, gladioli and stock.

Junior Women Sponsor Medic-Alert Program

The aims and purposes of Medic-Alert were explored here this week at a luncheon meeting of Junior Women's Club leaders from throughout the Diablo Valley area, at the home of Mrs. Albert Taylor, 3349 Springhill Road, Lafayette.

Mrs. Edward Allen, state safety chairman for the Junior Women says, "All Junior Women's Clubs in the state of California have adopted "Medic-Alert" as a state-wide project.

The executive director of Medic-Alert, Stafford Garrett, said at the meeting, "The writhing body of a child near death, an anxious father and a loving mother are the combination which first brought Medic-Alert into being a few years ago in Turlock."

Now, because of the concern of Dr. Marion C. Collins, father of the little girl, persons with hidden medical problems are being given added protection from serious illness.

Medic-Alert is a non-profit organization which provides identification bracelets or necklaces with patients suffering from heart disease, diabetes, allergies and other ailments. Thus, in case of emergency, the attending doctor has immediate knowledge of the patient's difficulty and can administer proper medication without fear of making a mistake.

Doctor Collins' child was so allergic to tetanus that even the scratch test to determine allergy was enough to throw the child into convulsions and necessitate resuscitation efforts at once.

Recognizing that any doctor would need information of this kind in case of emergency, Doctor Collins designed and had made a silver bracelet giving pertinent medical data. This would make it possible for anyone examining the child to know her particular problem.

Soon the doctor and his wife were swamped with requests for the bracelets from friends and patients.

As Stafford Garret says, the project grew like Topsy and without any preconceived notion of its possible magnitude.

Now over 55,000 Americans and bracelet for their protecwear the Medic-Alert emblem tion.

In case of injury, Medic-Alert maintains a central file with the medical records of its members. The information in these files is available on a moment's notice to physicians and other authorized personnel on a 24-hour collect-call basis in emergencies.

The international foundation is snpported by the one-time membership fee which includes the cost of the bracelet. The fee is $5.

Through the efforts of men's organizations and women's clubs identification insignia are provided also to persons who could not afford the protection.

Garrett says thousands of cases are recorded each year in which accident victims react violently and sometimes fatally to drugs. Policemen have mistakenly taken diabetics to jail as drunks rather than to hospitals for proper treatment.

Medic-Alert, he says, was founded in order to help avoid these tragic mistakes.

Junior Women's club members who may be contacted for additional information, or to place an order for a bracelet or necklace are: Mrs. Allen, YE 4-9587; Mrs. John Peters, DR 5-4307; Mrs. Lawrence Winkler, 283-8128, and Mrs. James Wimberley, MU 2-7427.

HOME ECONOMISTS will discuss with high school girls the future in their field, Tuesday faternoon during a reception at Las Lomas High School. Shown are Mrs. Paul Wilhelmsen, president of the Diablo Valley Home Economists in Homemaking, and Mrs. Milton Giulieri, invitation committee.

Retiring president Victor Kaufenberg recounted in his final report that statistics of past two years had shown steady growth on part of the builders exchange to meet challenges confronting the industry in this county.

Floyd in his initial report said that sessions of the state builders exchange which he attended recently in Las Vegas stressed need for more help and coordination at local county levels where construction legislation is concerned.

He also reported cautious optimism pervaded other California builders exchange delegations but believed that Contra Costa County would see increased building activity of all kinds in the coming year.

Azaleas, Camellias Are Fall, Winter Blooms

It's been said about California that our fall is just like having spring all over again. And from the standpoint of garden bloom, this is so true. You see azaleas, camellias and many another supposed spring standby blooming happily away this time of year.

If you are azalea minded, this means extra pleasure when you garden in California. Drop in on a member of the California Association of Nurserymen this month and you'll find some favorite Indica hybrids doing their best to spread the illusion of spring. What's more, they'll continue blooming right through winter and into spring.

WE'LL NOT attempt to explain this phenomenon, merely be grateful for it. And, of course, use it to our advantage.

There are areas where winter cold discourages the continued bloom of azaleas, but even in these situations, the protection of lath, overhead boughs or an overhanging roof will help to keep things going. Your local CAN member can give you pointers in regard to this.

In setting azaleas out, wherever you live and in whatever season, the two most important planting rules are: to provide good drainage and to use an acid soil. Many gardeners plant azaleas in pure peat moss and they love it. Be sure, however, that the peat is wet at planting time and that it never dries out.

THE TWO most important steps after planting are to provide adequate food and moisture. So long as drainage is good, you really can't over water these moisture loving shrubs. Winter rains are often sufficient, but any prolonged dry spell during the coming months should be a warning to drag out the hose and water azaleas.

Feeding does wonders to promote heavier bloom, fuller growth and healthier looking plants. Use an acid food at least twice a year after bloom and supplement this with frequent light applications of fish emulsion or a wettable complete food. Should none of this green up light-colored foiage, use an iron chelate and you'll know success for sure.

Perennials Should Be Planted Now

Perennials for bloom next spring and summer should still be at the top of your planting list.

Cool weather vegetables should be set out at the earliest date. A few may be available as started seedlings in nurseries this month.

Check ties on tree roses and climbing roses to be sure they are secured against winter weather.

Las Lomas Edges Miramonte to Gain Title Share

STOPPED for no gain in last Friday night's Miramonte-Las Lomas game is Knight Fullback Larry Gabie. It was one of the few times in the game that the Matadors could contain the hard-driving Gabie. The Knights won, 7-6, to clinch at least a tie for the Foothill title.

WITHOUT PHONES, the Miramonte coaching staff resorted to a walkie-talkie system for the Las Lomas game last Friday. Head Coach Bob Brooks has received the report from his aide in the stands and is sending in a play with Norris Widener.

SOMEWHERE under the mass of humanity and padding is Miramonte Quarterback Tom Gaffaney who has just scored the Matadors' lone touchdown in the third quarter of last Friday's game. Gaffaney bulled over the goal line on a quarterback sneak from one yard on fourth down. The touchdown put the Matadors within a point of the favored Knights, but a bad pass from center ruined the extra point attempt. Sun photos by Bob Rush.

Mats, Trojans, Knights Winneds In FAL Jay Vee Contests

Miramonte's crushing pass attack smashed San Ramon, 25-14, last week in a Foothill junior varsity clash as the Mats stayed in the title race with the win.

The Mats drew first blood in the second period when quarterback Pete Boyle tossed to right-half Jim Raymos for 30 yards and a score. Minutes later Boyle connected again with Raymos for 23 yards and a TD.

In the third quarter Boyle hit wingback Steve Perry with an aerial good for 25 yards and the third TD.

Boyle scored the final touchdown himself on a 35 yard run in the fourth period.

Pete Cronin of San Ramon scored on an end sweep of five yards and fullback Tom Angelo made the Wolves' other TD on a run of 12 yards.

DEL VALLE kept the Bulldogs of Alhambra winless with a close, 13-6, victory.

The Trojans began a drive in the first period, on their own 36 with Jim Lesh smashing the final four yards for the score. Rich Bartlett ripped off-tckle for the extra point.

Alhambra also scored in the period, but failed to make the conversion.

It was still anybodys' game in the fourth quarter when the Trojans sustained another drive and Bartlett slashed into the end zone from three yards out. From then on Del Valle held Alhambra at bay and the Trojans had its' first league win.

Las Lomas knocked Acalanes out of the running for FAL junior varsity title by defeating the Dons, 19-7 last week.

Las Lomas led all the way with Acalanes scoring in the final period.

Quarterback Bob Strain passed to Greg Plecsia for 10 yards and the only Acalanes touchdown.

Las Lomas scored its other two touchdowns in the second half.

Knights Nip Miramonte To Clinch Title Share

By HEC HANCOCK

Las Lomas capped homecoming festivities with a 7-6 victory over the Miramonte Matadors, and assured themselves of at least a share of the Foothill Athletic League title.

The Knights, with only San Ramon left to play, need only to tie to wrap up sole possession of the league championship. A San Ramon victory will mean a tie for league honors by the two schools.

Despite the closeness of the score, the Knights were decidedly the better club. The Las Lomas defensive line completely contained the Matador running attack, holding Miramonte to a meager nine yards on the ground. Only by passing were the visitors able to move, and then only by the grace of several spectacular catches.

Las Lomas displayed a well balanced offense. Mike Breuleux with time to throw, riddled the Matador secondary. Knight backs, Larry Gabie and Perry Connor belted for good yardage. Gabie has shown excellent development this season.

LAS LOMAS moved the ball deep into Miramonte territory after taking the opening kickoff. However, the drive ended when a well thrown Breuleux pass bounced off the intended receiver into the sprawling grasp of Matador Bill Souza.

After having had another drive stalled, the Knights found themselves with the ball on the Miramonte 30-yard line with seconds left in the half.

Breuleux then tossed a forty-yard strike which Dick McCoy took over his shoulder without breaking stride, between two Miramonte defenders.

While Breuleux threw from the 40 the play was good for 30 yards from the line of scrimmage, and has to be one of the greatest of the season.

Breuleux's conversion split the uprights, and gave the Knights their eventual margin of victory.

Midway through the third period, Marimonte put together a drive starting from their own 40-yard line. Two key 15-yard penalties contributed considerably to the success of the Miramonte cause. Tom Gaffaney, Matador quarterback, took the ball in from the two-yard line for the score.

A high pass from center necessitated Bill Lewis running for the extra point. His bid for a tie was cut short by Knight tackle, Bill Staley, who forced him out of bounds just short of the goal line.

FROM this point the hard-nosed Las Lomas defenders, headed by Bill Staley, Larry Reardon and Otto Schatz closed the door on any further Miramonte efforts.

Las Lomas, while able to move the ball, was unable to get on the scoreboard again. However, their offensive efforts enabled them to run out the clock.

After an unimpressive start this season, the Knights have shown good development.

Breuleux has given them good leadership at quarterback. Given adequate time, he is on target with a good assortment of short and long passes.

With the return of Connor to good health, the Knights have fine punch up the center. The Knights' defensive line has shown itself to be class of the league to this date.

Only in the defensive secondary, does there appear to be problems.

Against the Matadors the Las Lomas defensive backs appeared confused on occasion, and passes were completed for long yardage.

With the prospect of facing San Ramon's sharp-shooting Jim Gelderman this Friday, this situation could lead to trouble.

Ace Is Scored at Orinda Country Club

Miles Sinnott scored a hole-in-one at the Orinda Country Club recently.

Sinnott used an eight iron to ace the 117-yard eighth hole.

Las Lomas Needs Win Tonight for Undisputed Title

Las Lomas Expected to Win Title in Close Game

The Sun's staff of sports writers all agree that Las Lomas will clinch the undisputed championship of the Football Athletic League by defeating San Ramon tonight.

All four writers think it'll be a close game. The biggest point spread is seven points.

Del Valle is a unanimous choice to finish the season with its eighth win which will give the Trojans an undefeated season.

After last week's impressive victory, Del Valle is expected to win easily over Terra Linda.

IN ANOTHER big game, Pleasant Hill is picked by all four writers to defeat College Park and stay in the running for the Contra Costa Division title.

In other games, Piedmont is picked to beat Acalanes; Miramonte is the choice to hand Alhambra its eighth straight setback, and Clayton Valley is expected to defeat Antioch.

In unprecedented unity this week, the four staff members were in complete accord on eight of the 10 games.

The only games on which the staff members do not agree are the Cal-Air Force clash at Berkeley and the Raider-New York game.

Hec Hancock picked the Air Force and Oakland while the other three writers disagreed with his choices in those games.

THE FOURSOME sees eye to eye on the other eight games.

Sports Editor George Colburn, who finally picked a "wild card" winner last week after three weeks of frustration, sees the Chicago Bears making the Western Division of the NFL a five-team scramble by upsetting Green Bay Sunday, 31-27.

Dave Anderson continues to pace the prognosticators with a 52-28 record good for a .650 percentage.

Colburn, with five right choices in eight tries for his "wild card" picks, has the largest number of correct picks—55.

THE CONSENSUS (47-33) picks for this week's top 10 high school, college and professional football games are as follows: t

Piedmont over Acalanes (4-0) — The Dons would like to win this one.

Las Lomas over San Ramon (4-0) — An undisputed title for Duane Louis.

Del Valle over Terra Linda (4-0)—An undefeated season for Terry Bellon.

Miramonte over Alhambra (4-0) — The Matadors shouldn't have much trouble.

Pleasant Hill over College Park (4-0) — The Rams stay in the running.

Clayton Valley over Antioch (4-0)—The Eagles have returned to form.

Cal over Air Force (3-1)—Win No. 2 for the Bears.

USC over Stanford (4-0)—The Indians have been having their problems.

New York over Raiders (3-1) —The Oakland win streak ends at one.

49ers over Los Angeles (4-0)—It's been a long time between wins.

COLBURN (55-33)—Piedmont over Acalanes, 7-6; Las Lomas over San Ramon, 20-13; Del Valle over Terra Linda, 20-6; Miramonte over Alhambra, 19-0; Pleasant Hill over College Park, 14-7; Clayton Calley over Antioch, 13-12; Cal over Air Force, 17-15; USC over Stanford, 13-7; New York over Oakland, 21-20; 49ers over Los Angeles, 31-17.

ANDERSON (52-28) — Piedmont over Acalanes, 13-6; Las Lomas over San Ramon, 14-12; Del Valle over Terra Linda 20-13; Miramonte over Alhambra, 13-0; Pleasant Hill over College Park, 7-0; Clayton Valley over Antioch, 13-7; Cal over Air Force, 21-19; USC over Stanford, 21-0; New York over Raiders, 35-17; 49ers over Los Angeles, 28-16.

HANCOCK (49-31)—Piedmont over Acalanes, 14-6; Las Lomas over San Ramon, 20-13; Del Valle over Terra Linda, 27-6; Miramonte over Alhambra, 26-0; Pleasant Hill over College Park, 13-7; Clayton Valley over Antioch, 21-14; Air Force over Cal, 22-15; USC over Stanford, 27-21; Raiders over New York, 31-27; 49ers over Rams, 24-17.

JERNIGAN (48-32)—Piedmont over Acalanes, 21-6; Las Lomas over San Ramon, 20-14; Del Valle over Terra Linda, 30-13; Miramonte over Alhambra, 27-7; Pleasant Hill over College Park, 14-13; Clayton Valley over Antioch, 20-14; Cal over Air Force, 27-23; USC over Stanford, 14-13; New York over Raiders, 30-21; 49ers over Los Angeles, 21-7.

College Park Is Pittsburg's 4th CCD Victim, 14-7

College Park tried its best, but didn't have the guns to stop the Pittsburg express to the Contra Costa Division flag as the Pirates fashioned a 14-7 win in the Steel City last Friday night.

It was the fourth straight league win for Pittsburg.

They now have a full game lead over Pleasant Hill.

Defending champion Mt. Diablo was knocked from the CCD unbeaten ranks by Clayton Valley, thus leaving the road open for a Pittsburg championship.

The Pirates rolled up 384 yards in defeating the Falcons, but could not find a scoring play after the first two quarters.

THE FALCONS could muster only 95 yards rushing during the entire game.

In the first period, the Pirates jumped out in front quickly with Halfback Albert Lea getting the first six-pointer of the evening.

His five-yard run to paydirt capped a 58-yard drive.

Bob Daniels booted the extra point to put the home team seven points on top.

The Pirates increased their advantage to 14 points in the second period after Daniels intercepted a College Park pass on the Falcon 22.

Two plays later, Quarter Steve Beratta hit John L. Brown on a 19-yard pass play good for the touchdown.

DANIELS then added the 14th point to give Pitt a 14-0 halftime advantage.

The Falcons got back into the game in the third period after recovering a fumble on the Pitt 22.

Quarterback Loran Speck connected with Doug Sizemore for 18 yards and the TD. Dick Larscheid added the PAT.

The Pirates continued to move the ball at will, but could not cross the College Park goal line.

The Falcons were never able to mount a real scoring threat after scoring their only touchdown.

A San Ramon Win Would Give Wolves Title Share

By GEORGE COLBURN
Sports Editor

Las Lomas, assured of at least a tie for the Foothill Athletic League football championship, will be shooting for the undisputed crown tonight in Danville when they meet San Ramon, the only team with a chance for a share of the title.

Las Lomas needs only a tie with the Wolves tonight to win the championship.

San Ramon needs a victory to gain the FAL championship.

Las Lomas has won four straight FAL games while San Ramon is 3-1, being upset by last year's co-titlist, Piedmont, last week.

TONIGHT'S games finish the 1961 football season for all FAL teams.

In another league encounter, last year's co-champions battle for third place with a chance for a second-place tie going to the winner.

Piedmont will invade Acalanes favored to win its third FAL game of the year and clinch at least a tie for third place in league standings. Both teams are 2-2-0.

Coupled with a San Ramon loss to Las Lomas tonight, the winner of the Clan-Acalanes game would share second place with the Wolves.

In the other league game, Miramonte battles winless Alhambra in Martinez. A win for the Matadors would give them a 2-3 league record and a fine 5-3 mark overall.

PRIOR to last week's loss to Piedmont, San Ramon looked like it would enter the final game of the season tied with the Knights for first place with an unblemished record.

This would have been an amazing comeback for Coach Fred Houston and his young team.

The Wolves finished last in the FAL last year, losing all five games and scoring only 21 points. The entire 1960 season was all losses for Houston, in his first year at San Ramon.

This year, the Wolves opened with a tie, then lost two more.

Most observers figured they would win a couple of games in league competition, but no one expected the Wolves to be in the title fight.

SAN RAMON'S first league opponent was Miramonte, undefeated in three non-league games and expected to do well in league play.

But the Wolves upset the form chart, won 14-7, then added Alhambra and Acalanes to the win column before falling to Piedmont last week.

The Wolves now are 3-3-1 for the year. A win would not only give them a tie for the FAL title, but give them a record over the .500 mark — a fine comeback for any team that couldn't win a game the year before.

Las Lomas, on the other hand, was expected to do well.

The Knights were supposed to battle Miramonte for the title, but the conflict never came to pass as the Matadors stumbled in the first two games.

A win tonight would give Duane Louis and his Knights a perfect 5-0 record in FAL play and a fine 6-1-1 record overall.

The Knights wound up third in the FAL last year with a 3-1-1 record. An upset win over Acalanes forced the Dons to share the top spot with Piedmont.

THE KNIGHTS have had their share of luck, but in all their games have been the better team. In defeating Acalanes, 6-2, and Miramonte, 7-6, the Knights proved they lead a charmed life on their home field.

However, in both games, Las Lomas controlled the ball, but could not come up with a scoring combination when they moved into scoring territory. Statistically, the Knights had an overwhelming edge in both games.

Comparing the four common opponents the two teams have met so far, there isn't much to choose — except that San Ramon lost to Piedmont, 21-13, while Las Lomas staged a second half comeback for a 26-14 win.

Las Lomas defeated Alhambra, 28-0, while San Ramon thumped the Bulldogs, 27-6.

SAN RAMON rolled over Acalanes, 19-6, while Las Lomas had a rough time winning, 6-2.

Miramonte was victimized by San Ramon, 14-7, while Las Lomas nipped the Matadors last week, 7-6.

The Knights have given up 22 points in four games while San Ramon has allowed 40.

The Wolves have scored 73 points to 67 for the Knights.

Las Lomas will be the definite choice to win tonight's title clash because of its better record to date.

However, from this corner it looks like the game could go either way.

Dons Win Second FAL Game, 14-0

Acalanes found a foe that was to its liking last Friday and won their second Foothill League game, 14-0.

Winless Alhambra was the victim. The Bulldogs now have lost eight straight games this year.

It was the second shutout in four FAL games for the Dons, who have given up only 25 points in the four games.

After going five straight games without a touchdown, the Dons scored more points against Alhambra than they have scored all year.

The previous week, Acalanes had scored its first touchdown of the year in losing to San Ramon, 19-6.

THE DONS' other win of the 1961 season was a 2-0 conquest of Miramonte.

A win tonight for the Dons would give them third place in the FAL and possibly a tie for second in the final standings and make them eligible for some kind of "comeback award."

The Dons gave up 99 points in three non-league games, but since that time have been a hard team to handle despite their inability to score many points.

Last Friday night in Lafayette, the Dons missed a golden opportunity to score in the first period when they fumbled on the one-yard line after driving 80 yards with the opening kickoff.

IN THE second period, they made no such mistake.

Quarterback Doug Sanderson was the key figure in the 45-yard drive as he hit Ken Blaise for a first down on the 26, then hit Halfback Jim Rinne for the touchdown from the 10.

Sanderson then passed to Halfback Jan VanLoebenSels for the PAT and a 7-0 Acalanes lead at halftime.

Neither team could do much in the third period and again in the fourth period, but after Alhambra gambled and lost the ball on downs at its own 38, the Dons clinched things.

After moving to the 20-yard line, Sanderson kept the ball himself and raced into the end zone with just 55 seconds left in the game.

Del Valle Bids for an Unbeaten Season Today

By DAVE ANDERSON

The Del Valle Trojan football team will be putting all the marbles in the basket this afternoon as they tangle with their namesakes from Terra Linda.

The Trojans will be shooting for victory number eight in their bid for an unprecedented completely victorious season.

Kick-off time is slated for 3:30 on the Terra Linda field.

Del Valle and Terra Linda have much in common as both are new high schools with juniors only as upperclassmen.

Both teams boast identical records of seven straight wins.

The majority of Terra Linda's victories have come against some of the finest junior varsity teams in Marin County.

The two schools have quite a kinship for each other as last year they met five times in athletic events, even though separated by the bay.

TERRA LINDA will be "up" for this game to avenge the 34-7 lacing at the hands of Del Valle last year in a JV game.

That game showed promise of better things to come from Terra Linda, however, as they bounced back with the score 27-0 at halftime and played on very even terms during the second half. Looking at its season so far, Terra Linda is capable of avenging last year's loss.

Last week must be counted as the finest Del Valle effort of the season, as the Trojans turned back the powerful St. Elizabeth's Mustangs 23-13. St. Elizabeth's, favored by many, is certainly to be reckoned with in judging the fine teams of Oakland.

After an exchange of punts early in the first period, St. Elizabeth's grabbed a loose football deep in Del Valle's territory. From the 10-yard line it took three plays to punch over the goal, with halfback Bob Trujillio sweeping right end. Trujillio bulled over tackle for the extra point.

Del Valle scored next as they marched down the field, grinding out short chunks of yardage on every play. Bill O'Toole plunged over for the score from three yards out after a 46-yard drive which took 11 plays.

Mal Cameron ran the extra point.

THE MUSTANGS roared back as quarterback Tom Mertz hit end Bill Fulton on a 41-yard pass play that ended on the 10-yard line. After two plays, Trujillio took the ball over for the score. The PAT was not good, leaving the halftime score at 13-7 in favor of St. Elizabeth's.

On the second half kick-off, O'Toole, fleet Trojan halfback, took the ball and raced 35 yards before being hauled down. From the 41-yard line Del Valle scored after eight plays with O'Toole going in for the score. Cameron ran the extra point to give the Trojans a 14-13 lead.

With St. Elizabeth's forced to punt deep in its own territory, Del Valle blocked the punt and the ball rolled out of the end zone, resulting in a safety and two more points for the Trojan cause.

Another costly fumble ruined a Trojan drive as the Mustangs recovered on their own two-yard line.

The final Trojan score came when Cameron plunged over tackle for both the touchdown and the extra point, after a "roughing the passer" penalty put a stalled Del Valle drive back in gear.

A TELLING factor in the game was Del Valle's ball control. The Trojans nabbed 17 first downs to St. Elizabeth's four. The Mustangs gained 145 total yards to Del Valle's 214.

Coach Jerry Bellon was very pleased with the second half performance of the Trojans, lauding the fine defensive work of every player. He singled out Mike Valcke for a "tremendous" effort.

The Trojans feel that they can beat Terra Linda if their line plays as well as it did against St. Elizabeth's.

There are no more games to think about after today, and Del Valle is out to make their last game a copy of all the rest: victory.

Benefit All-Star Baseball Game to Be Played in WC

The Sunrise Optimist Club is planning a benefit all-star baseball game at Civic Field in Walnut Creek Sunday, November 19.

Many major and minor league players will be on hand for the contest.

The game is scheduled to begin at 1:30 p.m.

Cookie Lavagetto of Orinda, and a coach of the New York Mets, will manage the major league all-stars who will face a team of local minor league players.

Former American League batting champion Ferris Fain of Walnut Creek will be playing in the game, according to chairman Vincent DeBiasi.

The proceeds of the game will go to aid the club's work with young boys of the county, DeBiasi said.

Don Ferrarese of Pleasant Hill, who had an outstanding year with the Philadelphia Phillies, will be another of the local stars competing in the game.

Marty Keough of Lafayette, who performed with the Washington Senators last year, is also planning on playing in the benefit.

Tickets will be $2 for adults and 50 cents for children from eight to 16. Those under eight years of age will be admitted free.

San Ramon Title Hopes Blasted by Clan, 21-13

San Ramon saw its Foothill League title hopes go out the window last Friday night in Piedmont as the Clan toppled the Wolves, 21-13.

San Ramon can grab a share of the title by defeating Las Lomas tonight in Danville. Las Lomas needs only a tie tonight to clinch the FAL championship.

The loss to Piedmont was San Ramon's first in four FAL games. Las Lomas is now 4-0.

Halfback Mike Mivelaz scored both San Ramon touchdowns as he rolled up 180 yards rushing in 15 carries for a 12-yard average.

His touchdowns were scored on runs of 81 and 52 yards.

THE WOLVES started off as if they meant business, driving 65 yards in five plays for a score after taking the opening kickoff.

Mivelaz rambled the final 52 yards for the touchdown. Kit Carson booted the extra point to put the Wolves out on top, 7-0, with less than three minutes gone in the game.

The Highlanders bounced back in the second period to score twice.

The home team drove 69 yards in eight plays for the first score with Jay Knowland going over from two yards out.

Quarterback Steve Hogan passed to Bob Foskett for the tying extra point.

LATER in the period, the Clan drove 43 yards with Jack Hanson reeling off the final 33 yards to paydirt.

Knowland, who picked up 119 yards for the Clan in 19 attempts, banged over the extra point to put the Clan ahead, 14-7, at halftime.

Mivelaz picked up the Wolves in the third period when he scampered 81 yards for the touchdown that put the visitors one point off the pace. However, Carson's extra point try was no good and San Ramon still trailed, 14-13.

In the closing minutes of the game, Piedmont clinched their second win in four FAL games when Hogan hit Foskett on a six-yard scoring pass play.

10-year-old Rod Williams inspects the big earthmover his dad operates for Guy F. Atkinson Co., at Briones.

East Bay "EUC" Operator John L. Williams says: "All my work'll be under water!"

"My boy wanted to see where I worked. I took him out to the construction site of Briones Dam and Reservoir near Orinda. It'll be the Bay Area's largest dam."

"It's big, all right, with a big job to do. Everybody knows about the East Bay's population boom. Briones will help meet our water needs in the future."

"I understand Briones will be the most flexible reservoir in the East Bay Water system. Water from here can be sent to any part of the system."

"We've lived in the East Bay six years. It's good to know East Bay Water is providing for pure water for years ahead—and I'm glad to be helping!"

Rod can be proud of the job his dad's doing! It's hard, hazardous work—chewing away a mountain, piling it up as a dam. But by mid-1963, when Briones is finished, this huge reservoir will boost the East Bay's reserve water storage to 55-billion gallons—nearly a year's normal supply. It's an important part of your farsighted $283-million water development program.

Fat in Infant Diet Suspected As Dangerous

Children art the focus of a study at the Children's Hospital of the East Bay, in Oakland, to determine the possible role infants diets may have in the development of hardening of the arteries later in life.

The Contra Costa County Heart Association has announced a grant to support an investigation of fats in infant diet being conducted by Dr. Arild E. Hansen, director of the Bruce Lyon Memoral Research Laboratory at Children's Hospital.

This is the second year the local heart association has allocated some of its research funds to the study conducted by Dr. Hansen. Research grants are used to provide supplies and technical assistance in the study.

The investigation consists of a long-range study of how various types of fat in the diet affect the level of fat in blood and the condition of the arteries.

It may reveal whether fat eaten by the very young starts an accumulation in the arteries that may result in heart attacks or strokes.

Many investigators believe that saturated fat comes from such sources as milk, eggs butter and meat, are related to the development of hardening of the arteries.

There is some evidence to believe that this process may begin infancy and continue intermittently throughout life.

Unsaturated fats, found in certain vegetable oils, are believed to inhibit the hardening process.

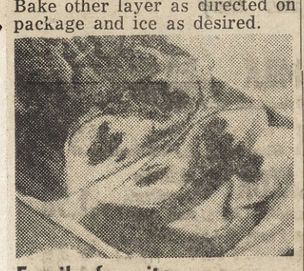
DESSERTS OF THE WEEK FROM Betty Crocker

These brisk days encourage big appetites. And how nice it is to wind up a hike, or a ride, or a round of golf with a good hot drink and a just-baked wedge of cake. Our Hawaiian Upside-down Cake is just right to cheer a hungry family . . . or bake 'n broil a honey of a warm-up cake to please a whole gang of neighbors. We bet they'll love you for it.

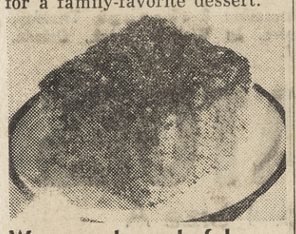
Cake-of-the-week:
HAWAIIAN UPSIDE-DOWN CAKE

Prepare a layer pan, 8 or 9x1½". In an 8 or 9" sq. pan, melt ¼ cup butter over low heat. Stir in ½ cup brown sugar (packed). Arrange 1 can (13½ oz.) crushed pineapple, well drained, and ½ cup flaked coconut over sugar mixture. Make batter as directed on Betty Crocker Toasted Coconut Cake Mix pkg. Pour half of batter over fruit in pan, half in other pan. Bake upside-down cake about 35 min. at 350°. Invert at once onto serving plate. Let pan remain over cake a minute, so sugar mixture will run down over cake. Serve warm with plain or whipped cream. Bake other layer as directed on package and ice as desired.



Family favorite:
COUNTRY LOAF CAKE

Plain or fancy treat! Make batter as directed on Betty Crocker Marble Cake Mix pkg. — except reduce water to 1 cup. Bake in two greased and floured loaf pans, 9x5x3", 35 to 40 min. at 350°. (Do not use smaller loaf pans.) Cool and slice—for a luscious lunch-box surprise; or top slices with ice cream and sauce for a family-favorite dessert.



Warm and wonderful welcome home:
BAKE 'N BROIL CAKE

Bake Betty Crocker Honey Spice Cake Mix in oblong pan, 13x9½x2". While warm, spread with Topping: Mix 3 tbsp. soft butter, 3 tbsp. hot water, 1 tbsp. light corn syrup thoroughly into 1 pkg. Betty Crocker Caramel Fudge Frosting Mix. Stir in 1 cup flaked coconut, and ½ cup chopped nuts. Broil 3" from heat 2 to 3 min. And next time, choose another Betty Crocker Cake Mix and another Betty Crocker Frosting Mix—to make your own special Bake 'n Broil Cake. So simple — and so very good.

BETTY CROCKER makes the difference... taste it!

Pack 248 Skits Based on Irving

Cub Scout Pack 248 recently presented two skits based on Washington Irving's writings.

Den 35 skit on Rip Van Winkle was written, designed, costumed and acted by the boys alone.

Den 2, led by Mrs. Skidmore, presented a one-string puppet show called "Sleepy Hollow Land" narrated by Mike Teicheira.

New boys entering the pack received Bobcat pins. They are Bobby McLaughlin, Steve Penrose, Ricky Hall, Kevin O'Dell, Gregg McClain, Larry Woodroff and Jimmy Carlisle.

Wayne Beumer is a transfer from the Philippine Islands.

Mike Teicheira received his Wolf gold and silver arrow points, Bill Carroll his Wolf badge and silver arrow point, Lee Teicheira his Webelos badge and Steve Hormer his Bear gold and silver arrow points.

Mrs. Billy Hall of Springhill Road was introduced as den mother of Den 4.

Chess Result Is Reversed; Virtues Win

The Walnut Creek Chess Club recently defeated the Pleasant Hill Chess Club, 7½ to 1½.

This was the second meeting of the two clubs. Pleasant Hill was the winner in the first session.

A number of interclub matches are planned.

It was announced that the Walnut Creek club has joined the East Bay Chapter of the Chess Friends of Northern California.

Charm School Graduates 30

The first fall session of Capwell's Walnut Creek Charm School graduated October 28.

Thirty junior and senior grade girls from high schools in this area participated in six charm school classes conducted by Mrs. Pat Fink, professional model and fashion authority. There was no charge for the course.

Sign-ups for future classes can be made at the Collegienne Department, the Sportswear Department, or the Personnel Office, second floor, Capwell's Walnut Creek.

Spanish Added To Academy's Curriculum

Spanish has been added to the grade 1 to 8 curriculum of the Walnut Creek Christian Academy, according to Rev. George Moore, superintendent.

Mrs. Arlene Rehn, who holds a master's degree in Spanish from the University of Chicago, will be the instructor.

Mrs. Rehn said during the instruction period, only Spanish will be spoken without reference to English.

Logan Paintings In Library

Now showing at the Walnut Creek Library are a group of watercolors by Maurice Logan.

Logan received his early training at the old Mark Hopkins Institute, now the California School of Fine Arts, in San Francisco.

He studied at the Chicago Institute and abroad before returning to his native California.

He taught for many years in the California College of Arts where he is currently a director.

In 1955 he was elected as an associate of the National Academy of Design. In 1956 he received his doctor of fine arts degree at the California College of Arts and Crafts.

New Arrival

The Rev. A. Leonard Gilmour, formerly pastor of the Arcadia Friends Church in the Los Angeles area, will move to Walnut Creek next week.

Three sizes of screwdrivers are all the home handy man needs for most jobs around the home. Using the correct size for each job eliminates chewing up screws and the tool.
